During his tour of Western Canada over the Canadiana Pacific lines, Field Marshal Earl Haig was received on all sides by cheering and enthusiastic crowds. At towns in northern Ontario and elsewhere he shook hands and exchanged reminiscences with local ex-service men, many of whom he recognized.

Having concluded his visit to the Pacific Coast, His Excellency Lord Byng, Governor-General of Canada, has returned East. Before leaving the West His Excellency stayed off for a few days at Banff to meet Earl Haig, and the two famous soldiers spent some time together talking over old times.

Considerable interest has been aroused in London, England, over the arrival there of 8,000 peony blooms for exhibition in the Canadian Pacific pavilion at Wembley. The peonies were grown by W. Ormiston Roy of Montreal, and have been sent to England to dispel the belief that Canada's climate is excessively cold.

Two automobile accidents occurred in Montreal over the week-end at railway crossings, in both of which it was proven that the car struck the train. In the first accident the car ran into the first car behind the engine and in the second struck the side of the engine itself. Public attention has been directed to these accidents as illustrative of the results of negligent driving.

Early in July a party of one hundred French-Canadians associated with the University of Montreal departed from Windsor station on a three-weeks educational tour of the country under the auspices of the University. Mayor Duquette of Montreal, Monsignor A. V. J. Piette, rector of the University and Professor E. Montpetit one of his associates accompanied the party. They were seen off at the station by E. W. Beatty, K.C., chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and other officials.

A similar excursion to the above left Toronto, July 26th, for the benefit of English speaking school-teachers. This tour, also lasting three weeks and covering all principal points of the Dominion was conducted by Dean Sinclair Laird of MacDonald College under the auspices of the Teachers' Federation of Canada.

GROWING FLAX IN THE VALLEY

Professor Blair of the Experimental Farm, at Kentville, urges that the Valley cultivate flax and hemp on a large scale. He does not do so without knowledge. When the members of the Maritime Board of trade visited the Experimental Farm at Kentville last year they saw fields of flax and hemp and also saw what could be done with the product. Both crops would flourish not only in the Annapolis Valley, but in other parts of the Maritime Provinces, and to produce them and utilize them in an industrial way would add materially to our prosperity. With conditions as they are at present, people must continually look about for new fields of enterprise related to our natural resources, so that we may be able to increase production, furnish more employment, and stop the drift of population to other provinces and the United States.

"Yes, sir! That one stained-glass window has increased the attendance of this church fifty per cent!" —London Opinion.

SUMMER HELPS

Your PORCH FURNITURE can be freshened by a rubbing with furniture polish or perhaps it is badly soiled and needs scrubbing. If it does not look well after this it can be painted or stained.

Wide striped LINENS in the gayest colorings make excellent coverings for cushions for the swinging seat or the veranda chairs.

LIME WATER beaten up with sweet oil is an excellent ointment for painful burns.

Art muslin CURTAINS should never be washed in warm water. Make a lather with hot water and when it is nearly cold, wash the curtains. If these are green add a little vinegar, if lilac or pink a little ammonia. Salt will set the color of black and white muslin.

If you have LEFTOVER CHICKEN, beef or ham, chop, season well and spread on 3-inch squares of pastry. Moisten with a little gravy or milk. Roll up like jelly roll, pressing ends together tightly; bake in quick oven and serve hot for luncheon.

Prices, railroad schedules and a woman's complexion are always subject to change without notice.
