SOLID QUEBEC

BROKEN AT LAST

Montreal, Sept. 21.—The results in the province of Quebec surprised even those who were confident that material gains would be made by the opposition. Hon. Sydney Fisher provided one of the features of the day going down to defeat before Mr. Baker, son of the late Senator Baker.

Hon. Jacques Bureau, solicitor-general, is also numbered among the fallen, while Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in Rouville; Dr. Beland, in Beauce, and ex-Speaker Marcell in Bonaventure, retained their seats.

The defeat of Mr. Gilbert in Drummond-Arthabaska removed from the parliamentary scene the man who showed a year ago the strength of the tide against the naval policy of the government. The Conservatives gained seventeen seats in Quebec, and lost four those lost being Soulanges, where Sir Wilfrid Laurier was victorious over Dr. Lortie, and Quebec West, where William Price was defeated by Mr. Power, of Sherbrooke, and Drummond-Arthabaska.

The Quebec standing as a result of yesterday's polling is 36 Liberals and 17 Conservatives, with two deferred elections yet to be held in Gaspé and Chicoutimi.

Another feature of the result was the lack of strength displayed by the Nationalists in counties which seemed to be their stronghold. The Conservatives not only held their own in the majority of the constituencies represented by them in the last parliament, but they added considerably to the number.

Objects of Pity.

It is an undiscerning sympathy that reaches only to ills that are felt and confessed. We every day meet men with laughter on their lips, and unclouded brows, who are very nearly the greatest victims of pity. Pity him who laughs but never thinks. Pity the men and women who fritter away the days in busy idleness, calling it society, when they might read a book. Pity those who, without evil intent, are making great mistakes, who live as though life had no purpose of end, who gratify a present desire, un mindful of future pain. Pity parents who have not learned how to rear and train their children; pity children so reared, as that they go unto life with undermined health and weakened nerves prematurely weaned of society, lawless in their dispositions, rude and inconsiderate in their manners, stamped with the impress of chance associations and unregulated pleasures. No, it is not pain that is to be pitied so much as mistake, not conscious suffering, but error as that breeds future suffering.
