

THE BROADWAY HOUSE OF FASHION

Have Bought the Entire Bankrupt Stock

of

BOOTS & SHOES

from The Fitrite Boot and Shoe Shop of Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

$70.000 worth of Boots & Shoes including RUBBERS and SLIPPERS to be sold at 33 1-3 p.c. on the dollar.

Never--and never is a long time--has anybody ever had such a privilege as this. THE GREATEST SNAP--in fact so great that it is almost beyond human comprehension. Call it luck, call it nerve if you like, the fact still remains that we have this wonderful merchandise, bought at such a low price, and we are going to turn this immense stock over to you at prices which will shatter any previous merchandising event.

Finding our present location entirely inadequate for such a tremendous stock, we have rented the former premises of

The Daily Star Publishing Company

Corner New Gower and Adelaide Streets

where this immense stock will be displayed for your inspection.

SALE NOW ON

DON'T SHUT YOUR EYES to these rare values--if you do you are blind to the biggest opportunity of its kind ever given to you--ATTEND THIS GREAT BANKRUPT STOCK SALE and you'll realize the tremendous significance of our prices--the enormous savings they represent.

Don't forget this Monster Event

Starts To-Morrow Morning at 10 O'clock sharp

at the former premises of

The Daily Star Publishing Co.,

Corner New Gower and Adelaide Streets

Don't forget the above address