New York, where she will make her home in the future. Her many friends wish her well.

Mrs. Erickson (nee Miss Elsie Parsons) and child, after having spent the last year or so visiting her home, returned to Boston last week, having taken passage by the Rosalind, and will join her husband at Boston.

Each passenger boat from St. John's is continually crowded with numbers of young people from different points around the Island, who are leaving to seek a living in another clime, and with the rest we wonder when the exodus is going to cease. Last week another of our young men was among the number, viz: Mr. Grant Tetford, and while his friends regret his departure, we trust that he will meet with success in his new surroundings.—COR.
