CORRECTIONS.

In our report of the A.A.A. Indoor Championships on Saturday, we stated that "Gerry" Halley's time for the 100 yards was 12 4-5 seconds. It should have read 13 seconds.

Miss H. Bayley's time for the Ladies' quarter mile was 1.20 and not 1.29 as recorded in our Saturday's issue.

ONCE GREAT WANDERER STAR, TOM PHILLIPS, DIED IN TORONTO.

Tom Phillips, whose death is announced from Toronto, was one of the greatest hockey players that ever lived. He once played with Montreal, and the Wanderers tried hard to get him afterwards, but on his way down, Ottawa met his train and dissuaded him.

Men like James Strachan, Geo. C. Gales, "Dicky" (R. E.) Boon, W. Jennings and Riley Hern who knew him well, all expressed deep regret at his death. "He was one of the greatest hockey players I ever knew," said Mr. Boon, who is still fondly known by veteran hockey fans as Wanderers' Captain. "He was a forward but he could play any position."

"He was the only man who ever scored four goals against me in one game," said Riley Hern, the peerless goaler of fifteen years or so ago.

His name will be always closely connected with Kenora on the Lake of the Woods, which in those days was very much on the hockey map.

Kenora's Star.

When the Eastern Canada Hockey Association was formed in 1905, Tom Phillips was the star player of the Kenora hockey team, which was composed of himself at left wing, W. McGinnis at centre, St. Griffiths as a rover, Tom Hooper as cover-point, M. Brown as point, and Ed. Geroux as goal.

Obituary.

WILLIAM MORRISSEY—Holyrood.

On Friday last, the Angel of Death visited the home of William Morrissey, Southside, Holyrood, and took him away to the Great Beyond. The late Mr. Morrissey was born at Holyrood, 84 years ago and, despite his four score years, he was hardworking and industrious until twelve months ago, when he was stricken with an incurable malady that invalidated him ever since, and to which he at length succumbed after a long and painful struggle, born with Christian resignation and fortified by the beautiful of the Holy Catholic Church. The last stages of his illness were brightened by the constant and affectionate nursing he received from his wife and daughter, and his passing was calm and peaceful. The deceased had a family of three sons and six daughters, all of whom predeceased him—except one son living in Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Maloney, living at Holyrood. He was a long time member of the
