MR. A. F. JURY AT ST. THOMAS.

St. THOMAS, Feb. 6.—This evening a mass meeting was held in the interests of Dr. Wilson, Liberal candidate for East Elgin. The hall was crowded. Mr. A. F. Jury, the well-known labor advocate, was the principal speaker, and he delivered a masterly address on the great trade question. His remarks carried conviction with them, and few could have left the hall without being convinced that trade restriction is an injury to both employer and employe, unless in the case of the men who are in with the combines. Two leading local epeakers supported Mr. Jury's views, and were loudly applauded. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

closed with the usual cheers.

EAST ELGIN.

AYLMER, Feb. 7.—When the formal reminations for East Elgin were made on Friday, Dr. J. H. Wilson was nominated as the candidate for the Reform party and Mr. A. B. Ingram for the Conservatives. Dr. Wilson appointed Norman McDonald, barrister, St. Thomas, his financial agent, and Mr. Ingram appointed George S. McCarter, barrister, St. Thomas.

SOUND ADVICE BY THE CLERGY.

MONTREAL, Feb. 7.—Mgr. Moreau, bishop of St. Hyacinthe, has issued a pastoral letter in connection with the forthcoming contest, which has been read in all the churches of the diocese. His Lordship warns the faithful of the dangers attending an election, and especially regarding false oaths and corruption. Rev. Mr. Castonguay, rector of St. Canegonde Parish Church, mys: "Vote according to the dictates of your conscience. Care not for the Rouge or the Bleu, but, casting all petty party jealousies aside, support the honest man, and discountenance the dishonest man. The country demands this of you."

THREE CHEERS FOR THE "OLD INVINCIBLE."

GODERICH, Feb. 7.—While awaiting the reply of Mr. Cameron to the telegram announcing his nomination by the Liberals, rousing addresses were given by Dr. Macdonald, M. P. for East Huron, and J. T. Garrow, M. P. P. for West Huron, and these were followed by brief but enthusiastic speeches from J. Kernighan, Colborne; Jas. Somerville, ex-M. P. for West Bruce; R. Holmes and D. A. Forrester, of Clinton, and D. McGillicuddy of Goderich, When Mr. McGillicuddy read the dis-SOUND ADVICE BY THE CLERGY.

Clinton, and D. McGillicuddy, of Goder-ich. When Mr. McGillicuddy read the dispatch which stated that the old member would once more carry the standard to victory in the Reform interest, and prefaced it with the single phrase, "West Huron is safe, M. C. Cameron accepts the nomination," the great audience arose as one man and gave three times three for the idinvinible. Mr. Cameron's acceptance of the nomination means that West Huron will remain in the Liberal; column by a large majority in spite of the fact that the entire strength of the Government will be at the back of the defeated of North Essex.

WRITS DELAYED—TORY TACTICS.
The Speaker's warrant for East Hastings was only issued Feb. 2, and the writ went out the same day, but in the case of Montmorency, where the Speaker's warrant was issued Nov. 26, over two months ago, the writ is still withheld. The revised lists for Montmorency were executed Dec. 19. The writ is still withheld. The revised lists for Montmorency were gazeted Dec. 19. The Speaker's warrant for East Simcoe was issued Jan. 7, so that the East Simcoe writ should have been issued a full mouth ago. The writ for Monck should have been issued four weeks ago, Quebec West two months ago and Brome one month ago. In all these cases there has been for the time mentioned no legal or formal impediment of any kind in the way of the issue of the writ. It was simply because the Tory party in the ridings and the Tory politicians in office at Ottawa were not prepared in in office at Ottawa were not prepared in their party organization. The effect will now be to disfranchise half a cozen or a dozen constituencies whose returns of election will not be in by the returns of election will not be in by the time Parliament meets, twenty days from how. How will the free electors of South Perth, Montmorency, Brome, Quebec West, East Simcoe, Monck and London feel when Parliament meets, and they have no object or vote in the popular chamber? Clearly the Government are prepared to treat these constituencies they have no chance of winning with contempt and outrage. The seats the Government have abandoned are indicated by this list: Quebec West, South Perth, Montmorency, Brome, East Simcoe, Monck, London, and the seats they regard as a forlorn hope to contest are Wost Huron, East Hastings, Vaudreuil and South Ontario. The following is a list of the nuron, East Hastings, Vaudreul and Soutia Ontario. The following is a list of the seats which are or shortly may be vacant, but with regard to which no judges' reports have yet been received. RRITISH COLUMBIA OPINION.

PROCUVER, B. C., Feb. 7.—As indicating the trend of political opinion in this review, the following resolution, to be moral by Col. Baker, M. P. P. for East Kotsmay, a strong Conservative, has been placed on the notice paper in the Legislative Assembly: "Whereas the natural wellsh of British Columbia in minerals, in timber and fish is very great, and whereas markets for such products are to be found in the United States, and whereas the import futies on some of such products into the United States practically closes the markets in that direction to commercial enterprise in British Columbia, and whereas the prosperity of British Columbia must depend upon external trade, therefore be it enterpt that an humble address be preted that an humble address be pre to his Honor the Lieutenant-Gov scated to his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor praying him to move the Dominion Government to take such steps as may be demed advisable to bring about unrestricted reciprocity with the United States in the aforesaid natural products."

Lieutenant-Governor Campbellis still too ill to open the Legislature in person, and no provision seems to exist by which an administrator can be appointed to set for him. An administrator can be appointed when a lieutenant-governor is out of the Province, but a case of illness does not seem to have been provided for. Appalling Catastrophe!

Burning of the Hotel Royal, New York.

A Hundred and Fifty People in the Ill-Fated Building.

Five Corpres Taken From the Ruins and a Hundred Missing-Scenes of Terror and Marvelous Escapes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 .- An appalling catastrophe paralleling in horror and per haps exceeding in loss of life the Park Place disaster of last summer, occurred in this city at an early hour this morning. The Hotel Royal, at Sixth Avenue and Fortieth street, opposite Bryant Park, was completely burned, and many persons were suffocated and crushed in the ruins. Five burned, crushed and disfigured bodies, within a short time after the breaking out of the flames, were removed to the morgue, and it is feared that scores of other perand it is feared that scores of other per-sons are buried in the ruins. Fire broke out shortly after 3 o'clock this morning and spread with fearful rapidity, cutting off all means of escape for the guests rooming in the upper stories of the build-ing. The fire started in the basement near the clevator shaft, which was located in the middle of the building. in the middle of the building. THE FLAMES DISCOVERED.

THE FLANES DISCOVERED.

The flames were first seen pouring out of the cupola by an engineer on a Sixth avenue elevated railroad train, who stopped his engine directly in front of the hotel and blew the locomotive's whistle loud and continuously. This unusal sound awoke many of the sleeping people in the hotel and brought policemen to the scene, who at once summoned the fire brigade. Meanwhile the employes of the hotel on night duty sought to arouse the guests by their crics of "Fire!" The fire chief in charge on arriving rung three more alarms in quick succession. Meanwhile the most HEARTHENDING AND SICKENING SCENES were being enacted. The horror-stricken crowd that had quickly gathered in the streets about the doomed building saw men and women clad only in their night clothes. and women clad only in their night clothe and women clad only in their night clothes jump from the upper stories and fall upon the stone flagging of the sidewalks crushed to death or scriously injured. Eyewitnesses tell of the appearance at the upper windows of terror-stricken men and women, who, unable to find escape, fell back overcome by the smoke and flames.

EVERY WINDOW FILLED WITH HUMAN BEINGS.

Every window of the building seemed filled with men, women and children crying out piteously for those below to save them. Some of these were certainly burned to death. The first hook and ladder company reached the scene about seven minutes reached the scene about seven minutes after the flames were discovered, and the fremen lost no time in running up their ladders to windows for the work of rescue, while firemen, policemen and citizens mounted ladders and carried down women mounted ladders and carried down women and children to places of safety. The staircases and elevator shafts within the building were now completely enveloped in flames. The fire escapes in rear of the building afforded a means of escape to some, while the fire ropes provided in all rooms were utilized by many male guests in reaching the street.

These escapes occurred before the walls of the building

WHEN THE WALLS FELL people were seen at several windows on the top floor crying for help, but they fell back and were soon buried in the ruins. The flames of the burning building illuminated the sky for miles around, and drew to the scene an immense crowd of records.

One of the most thrilling escapes of this night of terrors was that of a young man named J. Noonan, of Jersey City, who had been recently married. He came to this city yesterday to celebrate the event with his friends. Noonan was awakened by the shouts of fire and the cries for help of men and women in the building. For a moment he was dazed, but in an instant he collected his scattered senses. He looked out of the window and no ladder was near him, so, with the confidence of an athlete, he swung himself from the window sill to the window below, and from one window to the other he descended until he reached the ground. THRILLING ESCAPE.

THE BURNED HOTEL.
The Hotel Royal was built more than 25 The Hotel Royal was built more than 25 years ago. It was formerly kept by Messrs, Peris & Butler, but Mr. Mears leased it thirteen years ago. In 1882 the building was remodeled and an addition was made on the south side. It had 124 rooms. The house was the home of many persons in the theatrical profession, and was patronized chiefly by transients for a night. Many families made it, however, their permanent place of residence. The elaborate restaurant was liberally patronized by the class of people who kept late hours in the upper part of Tender Loin District.

AFTER THE FIRE.

After the fire had sufficiently cooled to permit a partial examination of the ruins a search was made for the dead. The searchers were at once rewarded by the finding of a charred body, thought to be Henry J. Levy.

The loss on hotel and furniture is estimated at $250,000. The building is owned by Hyman Israel, furniture dealer on the Bowery.

THE REGISTER.

The register was found, but was of comparatively little value as giving an idea of those who stopped at the ill-fated hostelry. Not all who engaged rooms ragistered, nor did all those who registered put down their true names. A few of the names as written are: E. T. Leonard and Mrs. Leonard, Philadelphia; H. D. Toulin, city; E. F. Leonloka, Boston, T. Trafford and wife, New Rochelle; F. A. Clarke and wife, Boston; J. C. Price and wife, city; L. C. and Mrs. Taylor, Newark, N. J.; F. From a careful examination of the hotel register and journal, which was furnished by Night Clerk Underwood, the number of persons in the building when the fire broke out was 152. Of these 8 ars known to be dead, 81 were rescued by the firemen, assisted by citizens, before the walls collapsed and 61 are still missing. Among those who were rescued from the flaming building are 24 who are more or less seriously burned and bruised. At 10 o'clock the eighth body was found. It was that of a man. LONDON, Feb. 7.—The death of Sir Morell Mackenzie has led to the revelation of an incident in one of the most trying periods of his career, which, up till now, has been kept a secret. Only a few days before the death of Emperor Frederick, and while he was still Crown Prince, and Sir Morell was under the terrible fire of the German surgeons, a lady, who had access to his rooms at the Hotel Victoria at all times, entered and said to him:

rooms at the Process the control of "but I have not the right to admit it. If I did it would wrong that poor woman and her children," indicating the Crown Princess. Rome, Feb. 7.—An immense fire which caused much excitement occurred yesterday in Pantanella's large flour warehouse in this city. The whole sky was lit up by the glare, which attracted such an enormous crowd to the scene that the men who were fighting the fire were greatly hampered in their movements, and at last troops were sent to turn the people back. King Humbert, who was proceeding on his way to a ball given at the German Embassy, ordered his carriage to be stopped when he reached the scene of the fire. The King was quickly recognized by the crowd, and received an ovation.
