While the majority of the people of London were still peacefully slumbering hundreds of enthusiastic young Endeavorers had risen and where wending their way in the brisk air of early morn to St. Andrew's Church, and again was presented the remarkable spectacle of the building completely filled at half past 6 o'clock. Under such circumstances the sunrise prayer meeting could not be but an interesting and impressive one. It was conducted by Rev. H. W. McTavish, of Shelburne, and the delegates entered into the devotional exercises with all their heart and soul.

DENOMINATIONAL RALLIES.

The hour from 8:45 to 9:45 a.m. was devoted to denominational rallies. The young people had just time to hurry home from the sunrise gathering, get breakfast and hie off again to the churches of their respective denominations. The following were the churches selected and the leaders at each:

SUNDAY FUNERALS.

Discussed by the Einisterial Associa-tion—Text of a Resolution Adopted —They Will Abide by Their Agreement.

tion—Texx of a Resolution Adopted —They Will Abide by Their Agreement.

On Sept. 16, 1889, 28 clergymen, 5 undertakers and the trustees of Woodland and Mount Pleasant Cemeteries signed a decument the text of which was as follows; "We, the undersigned ministers and undertakers of the city of London and vicinity, agree to discontinue sitendance of Sabbath funerals, except in cases of extreme necessity, such as where there is danger of contagion or infection, and then only upon a certificate from the medical health officer of the district, certifying that there is abisolute necessity that the interment should take place."

The family of the late Detective Phair decided on the day of his death that the ineral should take place on Sunday in order that his son John should arrive from San Francisco before the burial. Decessed was a leading member of Talbot Street Baptist Church, and Rev. Ira Smith, the pastor was requested to officiate.

Rev. W. J. Clark called a meeting of the London Ministerial Association this morning, and in the Y. M. C. A. parlors the matter of Sunday funerals was discussed for nearly two hours by Rev. Measrs. R.
Alyward, W. J. Clark, J. A. Murray, Stephen Bond, Ira Smith, W. Rigsby, J.
R. Gundy, W. M. Roger and W. M.
Walker. Some members argued that if the association allowed Mr. Smith to attend the funeral the agreement entered into might just as well be declared null and void, while others threatened to withdraw from the Ministerial Association. Finally the following resolution was passed:

"As an association we most deeply sympathize with the family of the late Detecinto might just as well be declared null and void, while others threatened to the known action of the Ministerial Association and the other ministers of the city, as well as
the other ministers of the city, as well as the undertakers and cemetery authorities the other ministers of the city, as well as parties concerned that we are onlyanxious to preserve the sanctity of the Lord's Day and it is proper observance in relatio matter."

This ended the discussion, and the asso-ciation adjourned without having taken any definite action on the matter for which the meeting was called.
