Proposal in Re Grimsby Park.

Toronto, June 3.—The proceedings tackn in East Toronto against Messrs.

J. F. Edgar, O. W. Smith, B. Cronyn and W. Gordon, prominent members of the Toronto Golf Club, for alleged breach of the Lord's Day Act in playing the game on Sunday, resulted in an imposition of a fine of $5 and costs on each of the defendants by John Richardson, J. P. The defense submitted that golf was not touched by the act, not being a game of "skittles, tall, football, racquets, or any other neisy game." The case will be appealed. Hamilton, June 3.—A notice of motion was given by W. J. Waugh, of this city, which will create a sensation among the Methodists. The motion declares the employment of men and the collection of fees at Grimsby Park on Sundays to be a violation and desecration of the Lord's Day, and calls for an immediate stop to be put to it. The Park is ewned and run by leading Methodist clergymen and laymen, Byron's Shrine.

"Shrine of the mighty! can it be

That this is all remains of thee?" -Byron. See a woman once rosy and bright fair and beautiful, light of heart, quick of step, dulcet in tones, the very light and life of the house, and you see a picture that might be called a bit of Paradise. See that same woman worn by disease, pale and haggard, heavy of heart, speaking seldom, casting a shadow of gloom throughout the house by her presence, and you have a picture of Faradise Lost. Alas, she suffers from the ills that thousands of women know. Tell her that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a certain cure for feminine weaknesses and derangement, it will restore health and good spirits and maek her once more a blessing to her family and the world. Donnoha, Forsyth Co., N. C. Dr. R. V. Pierce: Dear Sir,—For some six or seven years my wife had been an invalid. Becoming convinced that it was her only hope, we bought six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and "Golden Medical Discovery." To the surprise of the community and joy of myself and family, in one week my wife commenced to improve, and long before she had taken the last bottle she was able to do her own work (she had not been able to do it before for seven years), and when she had taken the last of the medicine she was soundly cured. Yours truly, REV. T. H. STIMPSON.

Two hours to dine. But it's different, quite, when a girl

There is no leisure nowadays for the dressing gowns and the slippers, and the indulgent entertaining of every new author that comes along. Influenza is not more epidemic than author's itch. Every other person, from one end of the land to the other, is, or would be, or will be, an author. We have taught everybody to read, and every month brings forth a new crop of matter dailies, weeklies, monthlies and books. We have taught everyone to write, and write they all must, whether or no they have anything to write about.

She-What do you see in a silly girl He-Darling, that's what my mother asks me! The following little story will be appreciated, I think, by the numerous church-builders in our midst just at present. It is of a little girl who sent her minister a letter to the effect: "I hear you are anxious to build a large church, and so I am sending you twopence-half-penny, and when you want more let me know." "Take away woman," shouted the orator, "and what would follow?" "We would!" said the man at the back of the audience promptly.

Boyhood owes a debt of gratitude to the British Medical Journal, which in one of its recent issues, explodes the fallacy with regard to early rising. Courageously turning its back on all the wisdom of the past, and in flagrant contradiction with all those writers of moral essays concerning greatness achieved by early rising, this leading medical authority takes the part of the sleepy youth against his wakeful parents. We learn now that it is natural and proper for elderly people to rise at 5 or 6 a.m., because their vascular system has become stiff; but that it is equally natural and proper for the healthy boy to keep his bed till 8. Henceforth boys must deny themselves such violent delights as rising with the lark, and their elders must cease encouraging them in so vicious a practice. The early worm may be all very weil for the early rising parent if his gastro-nomical tastes lie in that direction, but there are more palatable articles of food at the disposal of the boy who gets up later in the day which derive additional flavor from the conviction that by lying abed he has done justice to the vascular system. It is a great thing to have a vascular system-especially for boys.

They do say that loyal subjects of her Majesty turn up their noses in London when they see the dowdy frocks worn by the Duchess of York. There isn't so bad a dresser in the whole royal crowd as this young woman, who might take the lead everywhere. Oh, why is this thus! A much needed and welcome breakfast table apopintment is the toast crisper, for which a patent has been recently secured, and the article itself will soon be on the market. It is a pretty, closely covered silver dish with inside rack and undereath spirit lamp—the delicate slices of bread first toasted and placed in this to gain an additional crisp and keep hot. An encouragement to laggards at the morning

A girl's hair is one of her points of beauty, and it should never be neglected. Regular steady brushing of the hair with a clean brush, 50 strokes before going to bed, 25 in the morning when dressing, will keep the hair thick, smooth, soft and lovely. Once a month at least the tips of the hair should be clipped off, just the merest tip-ends at the edges, and once a month the head should be carefully washed, with tepid water and soap, thoroughly rubbed and well dried. If mamma has time to take this sort of care of her daughter's hair she will be repaid by seeing rich and flowing tresses, or sisters may easily do it for one another. Do not cut your hair in bangs. It is very much prettier simply parted and combed back plainly, then braided in one or two long tails and tied with a ribbon. Avoid essences, oils and pigments; the hair needs only cleanliness and much brushing. Keep your hair brush clean by frequently dipping it into a bath of hot water and ammonia and drying it in the sun. Everything used in treating the hair must be sexupulously neat.
