

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

William Ross, Sarnia, Ont., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he was all run down, his appetite was gone, and his nerves were so unstrung he could not rest nor sleep. He had tried many remedies without benefit when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and he began its use. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured him.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Grain receipts were just fair this week, and consisted mostly of wheat and oats, with a light sprinkling of barley, corn and beans. Values were much the same as last week, wheat selling at $1.20 to $1.22 for ordinary and good milling grade, and $1.25 to $1.30 for extra fine lots. The demand was steady.

Oats fluctuated between $1.20 and $1.25, sales being easily affected by either light or heavy offerings. The bulk of the trade seem willing to pay $1.20 for limited quantities for accumulation, but nothing over the figures they drop out. Others, however, refuse to buy for anything but immediate cash, and prices for accumulation, therefore, are not higher in the spring.

Peas continue very scarce. None offered this week. Prices given for them are two weeks old.
Corn was in good demand, and sold from $1.10 to $1.15 per 100 lbs. Supply fair.

Barley values in this line were somewhat lower, $1.10 to $1.15 being the range. Buckwheat—Only one load came in, and that sold at $1.20. The competition was quite sharp.

Beans are very dull, not only here, but at the bean country. Prices were offered to supply the demand. Prices ruling are 80c to 85c for ordinary, and $1 for hand-picked.

Red clover seed came in sparingly. The demand is quiet, and prices were offered to supply the demand. Prices ruling are $5.00 to $5.50 for choice. The close was $5.00 to $5.50 for choice.
