PROCLAMATION To All Whom These

Presents May Concern: Whereas, the Municipal Council of the orporation of the City of London, at special session held on the 7th day of lay inst., adopted the following motion, "That his Worship the Mayor be requested, after the day of the funeral of his late Majesty the King is made known, to issue his proclamation requiring the elitzens to abstain from all business on the day as far as possible, and to discuss the control of the contro that day as far as possible, and to display upon their premises and otherwise

And whereas, it has been made known that Friday, the 20th day of May next, has been appointed as the day for holding of the funeral; These are therefore to make known that in obedience to the said resolution, I, J. H. A. Beattie, Mayor of the said city, do hereby proclaim Friday, the 20th day of May next a day of mourning, and request that, as a tribute to our late be-loved Sovereign Edward, of glorious memory, all citizens of London shall, as far as the same may be within their ower and control, abstain from pursuing their ordinary business occupations on

And I further request, as far as the same may be possible and convenient, that all citizens shall display upon their emises and otherwise mourning in token of the overwhelming
