RUBE AND MATTY
PAY VISIT TO FAIRLondon Baseball Manager and Fat Catcher in City Yesterday.

WERE TAKING IN SIGHTS

Yesterday was not Farmer's Day at the Western Fair, but nevertheless "Rube" Deneau and Matty Matteson, late 1913 Canadian League pennant chasers, were on the grounds yesterday taking in all the sights. Rube and Matty journeyed up from Windsor yesterday afternoon in order to take in London's great fall exhibition.

When seen last evening they denied that they had bought any gold bricks or that anybody had relieved them of their watch or had picked their pocket. Both seemed to be having a good time and amid mouthfuls of peanuts and pop-corn stammered out they were enjoying themselves immensely.

Their visit was largely one of pleasure and had little to do with the London baseball club or matters pertaining to baseball. Matty is anxious to land the Brantford management job and he may be the next leader of the Red Sox. Rube had little to say about baseball.

RANK OUTSIDER WON
BIG ST. LEGER STAKESNight Hawk Finished First in Famous English Turf Event—White Magic Second, Serenad Third.

[Canadian Press.]
Doncaster, England, Sept. 10.—Rank outsiders in the betting finished first, second and third in the St. Leger stakes of 5,500 sovereigns for entire colts and fillies foaled in 1910, the running of which took place today over the old St. Leger course of one mile, six furlongs, and 132 yards.

The winner of the stakes was Night Hawk, owned by W. Hall Walker. White Magic finished second, and Serenad was third. Twelve horses started.

Petroskey and McAllister Draw.
San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The Petroskey-McAllister 20-round fight this afternoon ended in a draw. Petroskey had a trifle the better of the go, but the decision is considered fair.

CUBS BLANKED ST. LOUIS

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—Robinson, pitching for Pittsburg today, was defeated by the Brooklyn Dodgers for the first time this year, the score being 2 to 0. Yingling was in the box for the Dodgers and pitched good ball, although in difficulties several times, each time perfect fielding of hard hit balls saving him from being scored on. Score:

CORRIDON'S HOMER WON IT.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—"Red" Corridon's four-sacker with two Cubs on bases in the lucky seventh won for the Cubs over the Cardinals today by a score of 4 to 0. Neibaas, who was on the mound for the Cardinals, was invincible, and allowed but four hits, but he issued passes to Zimmerman and Saler in the seventh, and then came Corridon's homer. Another pass to Archer and an error by Evans, who had supplanted Konetchy at first, netted the fourth run. Score:

Infield—Naps Lose Two Games
While Athletics Drop One.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Washington outclassed Cleveland in both games of today's double-header, winning by 8 to 1 and 8 to 2 and gaining two full games on the Naps for second place. Gregg was wild in the first game and Cullip, who relieved him in the second, was hit hard, as was James in the seventh. Boehling gave the visitors but four scattered hits.

Blanding was driven from the box in the third inning of the second game, while Walter Johnson held the visitors safe at all stages. Ayres, a recruit from the Richmond Club, of the Virginia League, twirled the last inning of the second game, and made a good impression. Scores:

IN THE POLICE COURT

The Fair time spirit is abroad in the land. Also the Fair time spirits. The latter were responsible for the appearance of more than a dozen of the inebriated gamblers in the police court.

The former was responsible for the discharge of the majority, with a warning. Outside the heavy drunken list, or the list of drunks, there was an international flavor to the cases. Italians, Poles, Chinese, Scotch, Irish, English and Canadians helped along the tableau.

China Militant.
Tom See is a cook in the Empress Casino. He has been a little bit of a trouble maker. Last night he broke his head and fast rule. Further, he broke a plate over the eye of William Marks, of Parkhill. This morning he broke a plate to pay his fine and costs. When the case was unraveled for the edification of the court, it was claimed that Mark and two companions ordered a meal that wasn't up to specifications. There was an altercation over the payment for said meal, and the result was a small-sized free-for-all.

History Was Difficult.
Police Magistrate J. C. Judd endeavored to delve into the little ancient history to see whether Joe Zubik or Mike Sanitaris struck the first blow. After a short attempt he desisted. Apparently interchange of pleasant words and the swapping of blows has been so long in existence that neither could recollect the first encounter. The gentleman with the mineral water name accused his comrade with having "knobbed his head," or "pushed his dome," in other words.

Pushed His Jaw.
Orville Smith, a cement worker, was dismissed on a charge of assault preferred by Hamilton Wrightman, a fellow-workman. Wrightman swore that Smith had "pushed his jaw several inches out of plumb and loosened three teeth. The defendant swore the teeth were loosened through an accident. The accident was his own shovel. According to Smith, he attempted to wrest the shovel from Wrightman when the latter came toward him in a threatening attitude.

Ernest Lammman and Sam Mulholland paid $3 for the pleasure of having been drunk and disorderly at the Fair.

Miss Sutton, of Lucan, is visiting her brother, Rev. H. Sutton.
Miss McMillan has resumed her duties as teacher in the junior part of the school.
Mrs. Ethbert Capstick is quite ill.

ACTOR CRAIG DEADWas Well Known on Canadian Stage for Many Years in Noted Plays.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Mr. Charles G. Craig, a former well-known actor, who had been ill for a considerable time, died on Monday night at the Kennedy Hospital, Rusholme road. Mr. Craig was well known on the Canadian stage many years, his best work being in "More Acres." In the course of a production of the famous pastoral drama, he sustained an injury which resulted in creeping paralysis.

Since then his wife, who had previously only played small parts, took to the stage seriously, and has gained fame as a character actress. She has appeared in Toronto in "The Winslow Boy" and "The Clansman" and "Beverly of Graustark." During the past week she has been playing in "The Sons of the Father" at Rochester, and came to Toronto at once on learning the news of her husband's death.

DORCHESTER.

Dorchester, Sept. 10.—Mr. J. B. Bannery and son, of Dorchester, were recent guests of Mr. W. E. Lane.
Mr. J. G. Gibson, of Ingersoll, was a visitor with Mr. M. C. Elliot over the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Boyes were in London recently.

Mr. Allan Myrick arrived recently from the West, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Myrick, and family left for their home in Saskatchewan after some months' visit with Mrs. Kinghorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCallum.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunt are spending the week in London.
Mr. and Mrs. David Daw, of Thornhill, New Ontario, who were recently married, are visiting relatives here.

Hooper 2, Gardner. Three-base hits—Veach, Engle. Sacrifice hits—Speaker, Lewis, Grover. Vitt. Stolen bases—Hooper, Speaker, Bush. Double play—Speaker to Cady to Janvria. Left on bases—Detroit 12, Boston 9. First base on balls—Off Moseley 6, off Grover 3. First on errors—Detroit 1. Struck out—By Grover 1, by Moseley 4, by Hall 2, by Dubuc 1. Wild pitch—Moseley. Time—2:33. Umpires—Hildebrand and O'Longhlin.

ATHLETICS BLANKED.
Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—The White Sox shut out the Mackmen today in the first game of the series by the score of 2 to 0. The Mackmen could not hit with men on bases against Russell. "Ping" Bodie crashed the ball into the left field bleachers for a home run in the second inning. Score:
Chicago . . . 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—2
Philadelphia . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Batteries—Russell and Schalk; Bender and Schang.

NEW YORK BEAT ST. LOUIS.
New York, Sept. 9.—Wild pitching by Wellman and Leverniz, both southpaws, coupled with a batting rally in the fifth inning which drove the former from the box, enabled the New Yorkers to subdue the St. Louis Browns today at the Polo Grounds by a score of 8 to 5. Ray Fisher was touched up rather freely in the third and eighth, the Browns out-hitting the New Yorks 10 to 7. Score:
St. Louis . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—5
New York . . . 0 0 1 1 3 0 0 1—8
Batteries—Wellman, Leverniz and Agnew; Fisher, Ford and Sweeney.

ST. MARYS OBTAINED BIG
LEAD ON HANOVER TEAM

First Game in the O. A. L. A. Intermediate Series Results in Favor of St. Marys by 13 to 2.

St. Marys, Sept. 9.—St. Marys defeated Hanover 13 to 2 today in the first of their intermediate O. A. L. A. semi-finals, and thus have a lead of eleven goals for the return game at Hanover on Friday. At no stage of the game did the visitors have a chance, the locals scoring without any trouble. Few penalties were inflicted, the game being cleanly contested. The locals should easily retain their lead, and will then meet Bracebridge in the finals. The teams:

St. Marys—Goal, McLean; point, Stewart; cover point, Jones; defence, Cuthbertson; second defence, Alberts; third defence, Wilson; second home, Lavalle; first home, McConnell; outside, Turnbull; inside, Marshall.
Hanover—Goal, Booth; point, Ash; cover point, Weider; first defence, Girdlet; second defence, Seinkpen; third defence, Zimmerman; centre, Helwick; third home, Schotte; second home, Wendel; first home, Zim; outside, Devlin; inside, Rube.
Referee—Frank Doyle.

"BATTLING" SCHULTZ WON.

Columbus, O., Sept. 9.—"Battling" Schultz, of Toledo, O., was awarded the decision here last night over Eddie Forrest, of Philadelphia, when the latter fouled him at the end of the second round of a boxing bout scheduled to go ten rounds.

NORDHEIMER'S INVITE YOU

You are invited to visit the Nordheimer Booth in the Main Building during the Exhibition, where may be viewed a representative stock of Steinway Pianos, Nordheimer "Quality Tone" Pianos and "Human Touch" Player Pianos. You will receive courteous treatment. We will endeavor to entertain, and not bother you about business.

You will be interested in the "Human Touch" Player Piano. It is the only Player that accurately reproduces the human touch on the keys of a piano. After a very little practice any person may produce on a "Human Touch" Player Piano the classic compositions of the world's greatest masters as they themselves would have rendered them. It is the supreme achievement in player piano building, and is worthy of the attention of every person having the slightest appreciation for music.
