

PLANS PROGRAM OF IMPROVEMENT

City Engineering Department Maps Out Many Undertakings For Fall.

$700,000 YEAR'S TOTAL

Work Put Through This Year Will Be Record-Breaking.

The city engineering department will undertake a big batch of local improvements this fall, according to a program of work which will go to the council next Monday. The improvements consist largely of curbs and gutters, sidewalks and road improvements. The department now has 472 men at work, compared to 320 a month ago, and it is said that this force is larger than at any time during the year. It is being urged that most of the proposed work be done to give the unemployed work.

RUSSIANS INVADE GERMAN TERRITORY

Occupy Presdasso and Leipouny and Chase Enemy From Other Towns With Loss.

[Canadian Press.] Petrograd, Oct. 2.—The general staff officers last night issued the following official statement: "The battle on the front in Eastern Prussia continues on the line of Mariampol. No decisive result has yet been obtained. We have at last occupied the German stations at Presdasso, near of Symon. Under a night offensive attack by Russians, the enemy retired from Symon. In the direction of Suwalki, the movement of the German forces, pursued by the Russian cavalry, was retarded. The Russian cavalry, under protection of artillery, became active in a disorderly retreat. The Russian forces, fighting in the line of Suwalki, German reinforcements sent by the railroads toward Suwalki, to the rescue of the retreating troops, took the offensive in the night of August 20 and Suwalki. Near Raczka, the Germans made a bayonet charge, but met with heavy casualties, many of their men killed or wounded. August 20 was being bombarded in heavy artillery from the north. At the side of the town up to the afternoon of October 1, when the Russian army took the offensive resolutely drove the enemy from that region. The enemy also was forced to evacuate Stutshin and Grajewo, where the Russian troops invaded German territory. The Russians have captured some automobile trucks from a German column operating against Ossowetz."

FIREWORKS FACTORY EXPLOSION KILLS THREE

Over Twenty Injured When Powder Magazine Blows Up.

[Canadian Press.] Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 3.—Three men were killed and many injured today when the powder magazine of the fireworks manufacturing plant of the Detweiler & Street Company on the Hackensack Meadows blew up and shook the city. It was reported to police headquarters that the number injured was probably forty. All the ambulances in Jersey City went to the scene. Windows were broken in buildings a mile away.

Wedding Bells

WAKERLEY-WOODWARD.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Woodward, 240 Ottawa street, on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Beatrice Maude, was united in marriage to Arthur H. O. Wakerley, of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Canon Gunne, of Christ Church. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

The wedding march was delightful, rendered by Miss Dorothy Winget, niece of the bride.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in white silk and attended by her sister Winifred, as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Stanley W. Cantrick.

After the wedding breakfast the happy couple left by G. T. R. for Toronto and other eastern points. Mr. and Mrs. Wakerley will reside at 171 Tecumseh avenue on their return.

OPEN ON TUESDAY

Pedestrians Can Use New Bridge at Wharfedale Road Then.

City Engineer Ashplant announced today that the Wharfedale road bridge would be opened to pedestrians on Tuesday of next week and by the middle of the month, when the approaches to the bridge are completed, the structure will be thrown open to vehicular traffic.

There have been a number of announcements as to when the bridge would be opened to the public, but Mr. Ashplant said today that residents of West London and South London could positively use the bridge, commencing Tuesday.

Excavation work on Dundas street hill, which is to be paved this fall, has enabled the engineering department to hurry the work on the approaches to the bridge because of the short haul of the dirt and gravel.

BOY RENDERS ENGINEER UNCONSCIOUS IN CAB

Komoka Youth Throws Stone That Disables London Driver at Throttle of Fast C. P. R. Train.

Struck in the eye by a stone thrown by a small boy, George Producers, 576 Oxford street, engineer on the C. P. R. passenger train, which arrives in London from the west at 7:20 p.m., was rendered unconscious in the cab of his engine near Komoka last night.

The train was brought to London by the fireman.

Engineer Producers was immediately attended upon arriving in the city by Dr. W. J. Stevenson. The stone struck the engineer in the right eye as he was looking along the tracks, with his head partly out of the window. He recovered consciousness some time after. He may lose the sight of his eye, but his condition this afternoon was reported as fair.

LEFT WING AGAIN POINT OF ATTACK

Violent Efforts of Enemy To Break Through Prove Futile—Allies Are Holding.

[Canadian Press.] London, Oct. 3.—Commenting on the status of the battle in northern France, the correspondent of the Times at Paris, says: "The violence of the battle seems to be concentrated for the moment on the left wing, which has prolonged itself to a point within 30 or 40 miles of the Belgian border, south of Arras. Through this line the Germans have attempted to break with the object of isolating the forces of the allies in the north. The combats in this region have been extremely violent, but the allies hold the enemy well in spite of the partial successes by the Germans."

"All along the front of this immense battle line—to the right, the left and the centre—the enemy has tried to break through in vain. Nowhere have the French yielded. On the contrary, they have steadily and methodically progressed, especially on the right wing. New progress has been made also in the Argonne region."

LITTLE WORK FOR LONDON CHINESE

Unemployed Among the City's Celestial Population Is Unprecedented.

BLAME WESTERN EXODUS

Influx From Prairie Provinces Gluts Labor Markets of East.

According to statements made by leading Chinese merchants and restaurant men in this city, the number of Chinese in London out of work is unprecedented. Never, it is said, in the history of the city have there been so many Chinese here who are out of work, and who stand little chance of securing employment.

The reason given for the unusual situation is that there has been a general exodus of Chinese from the western provinces. Most of them are coming eastward, and this city apparently has more than its share.

The men congregate at many of the Chinese laundries and stores here, which are said to be a kind of employment bureau. When Chinese in other Western Ontario cities are in need of men they communicate with the bureau here, and are supplied.

While waiting for employment the men are given board and lodging in return for which it is said they must work around the premises. Chinese here say that present indications do not promise any alleviation to the situation.

PRAYERS FOR PEACE IN CHURCHES SUNDAY

Ministers Will Refer to General Peace Day Services in United States.

From all church pulpits tomorrow, ministers will refer in their sermons to Peace Day, which is being observed in all churches of all denominations throughout the United States, in accordance with a declaration issued by President Wilson several weeks ago.

The Canadian Layman's Missionary Association, through its secretary, W. R. Russell, M. P., took up the movement in Canada. Mr. Russell, in a speech at New York, shortly after President Wilson's proclamation, had been issued to the churches, declared that the movement should be made continent-wide.

Since then, many cities in the Dominion have decided to make Sunday, October 4, a day of prayer.

Prayers for peace, and the end of the slaughter of human life in Europe, will be offered in all the churches.

THREATENS COMMITMENT FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

London Manufacturer Declared To Have Ignored Court's Injunction.

An atmosphere of chewing gum again prevailed at the court house today, when a motion was heard to commit Percy H. Short, to jail, on the grounds of contempt of court, for having violated the injunction of the court withdrawing him from using certain boxes and cartons for the sale of chewing gum. The plaintiff company, the Wm. Wrigley Chewing Gum Company, alleges that contrary to the injunction issued in its action against Short, which was heard at the last assizes, the local man has continued to use the labels protected by the Wrigley patent.

Justice Kelly, who presided at the weekly court, declared his opinion that the injunction had been violated, and stated that an order for commitment to jail will be issued against Short unless he immediately satisfies the plaintiff forthwith that he will obey the order of the court. George S. Gibbons acted for the Wrigley Company.

SEVENTY THOUSAND INDIANS IN FRANCE

Paris Expects Great Deeds From These Splendid Soldiers Who Are So Eager.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Parisians are elated over the arrival of the seventy thousand British Indian troops, who have joined the allied armies in the field, and from whom magnificent work is confidently expected. These men are the flower of India's defense forces, and exhibit a wonderful keenness to meet the Kaiser's troops face to face.

HEAVY ARTILLERY PUNISHED ENEMY

Germans Surprised by Long Range Guns Which Inflicted Severe Loss at Niemen.

[Canadian Press.] London, Oct. 3.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Post, speaking of the Chinese in London out of work is unprecedented. Never, it is said, in the history of the city have there been so many Chinese here who are out of work, and who stand little chance of securing employment.

"The Germans evidently were not aware of this, and advanced as though they had only to meet the ordinary field artillery. They were cruelly surprised at the terrible work of these heavy guns. In their retreat the Germans were under this persistent fire for ten or a dozen miles, and suffered enormous losses. The result is that the Russians are again on German territory."

Tried Bayonets. "For the first time since the war began, we hear of German troops attempting a bayonet charge. This was during a night attack on September 30 at Raczka, but the Germans were defeated, losing heavily in killed, wounded and prisoners. Apparently the Germans were taken by surprise by the Russian surprise."

"The Germans continue to retire under the sustained pressure of the Russian attack."

"Their front presents a broken appearance with its salient angle towards the Russians and offering two faces for flank attacks, which are greatly facilitated by the quality of the ground and the lie of the roads."

"The weather is appalling. The continual tropical downpour in such a country provides the worst possible conditions for armies anxious to extricate themselves from a wily enemy, conversant with methods of warfare of a guerrilla nature."

ENTERING CASES FOR FALL ASSIZES

Two Set Down Today—Street Railway Sued For $3,000.

Cases to be tried at the fall assizes before Mr. Justice Lennox, beginning October 25, are beginning to be filed at the court house, two cases being filed today.

Ernest F. Inch, Jun., of Strathroy, is suing William H. Brock, late of the Township of Metcalfe, but now of Port Arthur, for $1,500, alleging that in April, 1913, Brock falsely represented a farm in London Township to him, declaring that it was a good farm, and all but one acre free from couch grass. Inch alleges that after renting the place he found that the farm was covered with couch grass, and that on this account he was unable to till the land properly, and lost nearly all his crop.

Mr. Brock alleges that he did not make fraudulent representations about the farm to Inch, and that if the latter had cultivated his land properly the crops would have been good. He alleges that the poor crops Inch had in 1913 were due to the indolence, neglect and poor farming of the plaintiff, and that the farm was not covered with couch grass. Brock has entered a counter-claim for $1,500, alleging that this damage has been done to the place through neglect. Meredith & Meredith for the plaintiff, and Elliot Travers, Strathroy, for defendant.

Miss Jessie May Ashton is suing the London Street Railway for $3,000 damages, alleging that on May 30 she was thrown off a car at the corner of John and Richmond streets, the car starting before she had time to get off. Miss Ashton alleges that she was unconscious for two hours after the accident, and that her eyesight has been impaired, and she has suffered greatly from nervous shock.

The street railway deny that the company was responsible for the accident, and allege that the injuries were received through the plaintiff's own neglect. Meredith & Meredith for the plaintiff, and Ivey & Ivey for the street railway.

EXCITEMENT TOO MUCH FOR PRINCE

Kaiser's Fifth Son, Called To Lead, Had Heart Cramp.

Youngest Son Wounded

The Latest Casualty List Has 9,600 Names, Including Major-Generals.

[Canadian Press.] Berlin, Oct. 2.—9 p.m.—Via London, Oct. 3.—6:30 a.m.—Major-General Friedrich Von der Horst, the commander of the Twentieth Infantry Brigade, was killed while leading his troops September 28, according to an official announcement made tonight. He had previously received the Iron Cross for his work in the field.

Today's casualty list contains about 9,600 names and includes a mention of the wounding of Prince Joachim, the youngest son of the Emperor, at Schaetzels, East Prussia.

The Associated Press correspondent learned at Metz from the adjutant of Prince Oscar, the fifth son of the Emperor, that the Prince on September 28, with his regiment at Verdun in a most desperate battle, "fell" in a trench, including three sharpshooters in trees, picked off the officers, of whom so many were lost that the companies were led by sergeants during the hottest part of the fighting. Prince Oscar headed the column and got so excited that he collapsed with a heart cramp, brought on partly by several days' exertion prior to this fighting. The physicians ordered him to Metz, where he is now rapidly recovering.

The partition commanders everywhere are taking measures for the suppression of stories to the effect that the Catholic clergy participate in cruelties against German soldiers in Belgium, which, it is officially asserted, are untrue. The higher Catholic officials have been ordered to issue a statement in letters from the front. Persons repeating the stories will be severely punished.

General meetings have been called for today to begin a campaign against the consumption in Germany of Scotch whisky and French liquors.

On Liner With the Pat's Pets

Former Advertiser Man Sails On Same Troopship as the Light Infantry.

Roy McLeod, a member of The London Advertiser editorial staff, who left with the Army Service Corps, is on a liner, posted at Father Point on September 30, he says that he is on board the same transport as the Pat's Pets (Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry).

"We sleep on comfortable bunks, especially during the night. We have a good time of it," he declares. He also mentions the fact that other troopship liners that left Quebec with the vessel on which he is sailing.

RELIEF COMMITTEE TO FIX PAYMENTS

Will Arrange Scale For Soldiers' Families at Meeting This Evening.

A meeting of the members of the patriotic relief committee will be held at 8 o'clock tonight when a definite basis for the payment of relief probably will be adopted.

In all likelihood the committee will decide on the Connaught basis, which is being paid in almost all cases throughout Canada by the trustees of the fund for the relief of distressed families of soldiers on active service. Under this system the income from all sources of the wife of a soldier is paid to that amount and an additional allowance is made for each child, varying according to the age of the child. This basis would have been adopted by the London committee before this, but it was decided to wait to see if other similar bodies would adopt it also, so that the money would be distributed everywhere. As several committees have not taken action yet, however, it probably will be decided not to wait any longer.

MAKES RECORD TIME FOR ENTIRE SYSTEM

G. T. R. Carshops Holds Palm in Fire Team Competition.

Three hundred and fifty prisoners have languished in duance ville for a long time. The working men of the city, after the last quarter, according to Governor Carter's report. It has cost the county 8.84 cents a day to feed them without the delicacies prescribed by jail physician, Dr. Macfarthur. With the cost of the extra fine eatables tacked on, the daily menu advanced to 9.2 cents a day.

Over 5,229 pounds of bread were consumed, showing that the prisoners are living up to the request to "eat more bread." The "staff of life" for the quarter will cost $118.11.

Over ten tons of coal were used to heat the cooler during the crop old summer time, proving that things are made hot for all those who are unfortunate enough to get into the clutches of the law.

SUPPORTS PLAYGROUNDS

Chairman A. E. Silverwood, of the playgrounds committee of the board of education, and Inspector of Public Schools C. B. Edwards, completed an inspection of the school playgrounds in the city this week.

Mr. Silverwood is an enthusiastic supporter of school sports, and believes in the motto that "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Some recommendation, in support of this motto, will probably be adopted at a meeting of the playgrounds committee which will be held at the school board when Mr. Silverwood and Inspector Edwards will submit a report.

The recommendations of the committee will be considered by the board at a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

On the Spotlight

Moving pictures come for a week's stay at the local legitimate house next week. The papers of other cities describe these pictures as worth a visit, and the prices charged for admission are the same as in other places. The week, beginning October 12, has had a great confusion of announcements. The public does not know whether Marie Tempest or M. A. Bell Marie will be the attraction. Marie Tempest is announced today as coming on Thanksgiving Day, which comes on the first day of the month's appearance. Marie Tempest comes back from England this season, and there will be a treat for theatregoers if she has been booked.

There will be a dearth of the theatrical attractions in the United States this year, and the producers are said to be already afraid of booking their productions to the Canadian side. Several new things have appeared in Toronto and business was fair, but it is said that James K. Hackett has given Broadway warning that the public is not in a mood for "heavy stuff" at any rate. Certainly James K. came to Canada when the depression following the announcement of war was at its height. A number of New York producers have been holding their productions back. They realize that at such a time as this there is a doubt as to whether the public will go to the theatre. A farce may be the thing, but one or two "screams" have been cancelled. With so few new attractions it is likely that many will reach this city.

In discussing an article which appeared in this column recently regarding the crowding of moving picture theatres, one of the managers made a point that is worth considering. While admitting that there was crowding he maintained that it is more a fault of the patrons than the management.

"Our records will show," he said, "that if a person will come early enough and remain for only one show, there will be room for all. We want the people to come to the theatre, but we do not think that they should remain for two shows, as many do. While there is no rule to cause them to leave until they feel like it, the fact is that many stay for more than one show, and the result is that some are kept waiting."

One of the most serious difficulties that moving picture managers have to contend with. If the people will leave as soon as they have seen the show through, there will not be half the crowding.

At the same time we have good reason to believe that within a short time a considerable addition will be made to at least one theatre in order to accommodate larger crowds.

Mr. C. E. Bernard is just about to open one of the prettiest little theatres in Western Ontario. It is in the old Empire in East London. It has been completely remodelled and modernized. It has an indirect lighting system, the first of its kind in the province, and a perfect apparatus for ventilation. Mr. Bernard will show the Universal pictures, and has installed two machines, so that there will be no waiting. He intends to use fairly short films, and to give a show of variety, which will run the same length as the other houses. The house now has a seating capacity of 450 persons.

Tom Marks, leading man and director of the Tom Marks Stocking company, playing several weeks' engagement in this city, is apparently a popular man with the youngsters.

Yesterday as he was walking along Richmond street near Kent street, several hundred youngsters, led loose on protesting humanity by the ringing of the four o'clock bell at St. Peter's School nearby, fell upon him and scrambled out onto the sidewalk. They spied the big actor.

"There's Tom Marks!" a high treble piped.

Never did pursuing army make such a determined and whirling charge as did the shrieking mass of good citizens on the making. In a trice they had surrounded their quarry.

Caps were flung into the air and from several hundred throats rose shrill and high, several hundred yells in different keys, just to give to the man who was proud of their accomplishment.

To escape from the "attentions" that were becoming too numerous and frequent to be pleasant, Mr. Marks fled to the security of a candy store. He came out a few minutes later with a big bag of the "sweet stuff" which he proceeded to distribute among the children, yelling, howling, whooping small boys who were having a good time and realized it as well as appreciated that fact with all the energy pent up in their small bodies.

STILL HARD AT IT

Western Fair Officials Finishing Up Work of Big Exhibition.

The offices of the Western Fair Association on Richmond street continue to be one of the busiest places in the city, and a visitor to Secretary A. M. Hunt's headquarters realizes that the conclusion of the exhibition does not mean the end of the work of the officials.

Ever since the fair closed Mr. Hunt and his assistants have been and still are working hard. The prices are not yet all distributed, and some of the attendants at the exhibition houses are still to be paid.

Until this mass of work has been done and Mr. Hunt has taken a much needed vacation, no attempt will be made to compile statistics of the attendance figures. Mr. Hunt proposes to wait two weeks, holidays, commencing about the middle of next week.

They will take charge of the funeral arrangements.

The registration of new students at the Western Medical College, as in the arid department university, shows a very considerable increase. The city reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and accept any bid. Any further information will be furnished by the Chief of the Fire Department.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

The young man who elected to be tried by judge on the charge of stealing from his parents, in his appearance in police court last week, appeared before Judge Elliott this morning. He was found guilty, but was let go on suspended sentence. Judge Elliott declared him severely, stating that if he received any more complaints as to his conduct, he would immediately have him imprisoned.

He has never seen a doctor in that time, at least not in a professional way. As Mr. Carter sits back in his coach of state, the birds come out from the bushes and chirp "Good morning, Jimmy." The cows in the meadow go "Mo-o-o, Mo-o-o, Mo-o-o," and the calves along the line have it all fixed that their brains will never be served at the Tecumseh House.
