BRITISH TENNIS PLAYERS TRIM AMERICAN WOMEN

Associated Press Despatch.

Newport, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Geraldine Pearnish and Mrs. E. C. Clayton, British women's tennis team, defeated Miss Lillian Scherman and Miss Ceres Baker, representing the United States, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3, in the last of six international matches played at the Casino courts yesterday and today. The victory gave Great Britain four victories in the matches against two for the United States, and also averaged the defeat suffered by the British in the international matches played at the Casino courts yesterday and today.

Earlier in the day the draw brought Mrs. Molla B. Malory and Miss Eleanor Goss together. Mrs. Malory, winning by 11-9, 6-3.

In the match between two British women, Mrs. E. C. Clayton defeated Mrs. B. C. Cowell, 6-1, 6-2.

SEEK PRINCE OF WALES AS PATRON OF REGATTA

Canadian Press Despatch.

St. Catharines, Aug. 21.—That the development of the Royal Canadian Henley regatta depends upon its nationalization and linking up with the Royal House and the representatives of the crown in Canada is the opinion expressed after several talks with representatives of the Leander crew and the C. A. A. here.

The securing of the Prince of Wales as a patron, and Lord Byng as president, with the lieutenant-governor of each province as vice-presidents is proposed, and it is felt as a result that constant interest, financial and otherwise, would be stimulated, and rowing crews in the various provinces feel encouraged. In addition, it is altogether likely that considerable financial support would also be forthcoming for the local improvement now made necessary.

St. Catharines, Aug. 21.—Kenneth Williams, St. Louis home run slugger, used his alleged illegal bat in yesterday's game with the Houston Astros.

Austin said Williams would continue using the bat, which contains a wooden plug at the heavy end, until Ben Johnson, president of the American League, ruled on its legality.

DALLAS TRAPSHOOTER WINS. Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Aug. 21.—Phil R. Miller of Dallas, Texas, today won the amateur doubles championship of North America, the feature event of the Grand American handicap trapshooting tournament at the South Shore Country Club. He broke 181 out of a possible 200 targets.

SUSPENDS ST. LOUIS PLAYERS.
