TO MAKE CONTRIBUTIONS WRIGHT GETS DAMAGES

Local "Cause Celebre" Disposed Of by Jury at the Spring Assizes.

"Twelve good men and true," found resentatives to vote against the proposal, which would impair the island's constitution. It was, however, agreed that a free will gift from the island should be offered. sizes yesterday afternoon and awarded damages of $100 to the plaintiff Gordon Wright, retired merchant and journalist living at 420 Ridout street. The jury retired at 4:20 and was out an hour and 45 minutes before it brought in a verdict.

The case has created considerable local interest, as both the plaintiff and the defendant are well-known in London. Hearing of the many witnesses took the greater part of two days, and during the time the case has been before Judge Masten, the county courtroom has been well filled with spectators, who did not hesitate to guffaw when a humorous remark was made by either lawyers. remark was made by either lawyers, judge or witnesses.

The action arose out of an occurrence on August 29th last, when Mr. Wright, accompanied by a small boy, went to pick some pears from an orchard on a lot owned by his wife adjacent to Mr. Way's house. While Mr. Wright was picking the pears he alleges the defendant struck him with a hoe causing a scalp wound, and consequently sleenless. wound, and consequently sleepless ness, loss of memory and hearing.

ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH BREAKS OWN RECORD

Class Confirmed This Year Is Largest in History of Church.

Bishop ' David Williams of the Anglican Diocese of Huron confirmed the largest class of candidates in the history of St. Matthew's Church last night. Thirty-seven candidates became members of the church. The confirmatory sermon was preached and the service conducted by the bishop, assisted by the rector, Rev T. J. Charlton.

Following the issuing of certificates of membership, the bishop congratulated the class and the rector, and urged the congregation to aid the candidates to be ever faithful and constant by giving them instruction, in spiritual things and making the church a center of good fellowship.

Taking John 15:14, "Ye are my Taking John 15:14, "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you," as his text, Bishop Williams referred to the conditional element in natural and spiritual things. "Some people think we will get God's blessing even if we do not take heed to the commandments, but if we look at the way God rules the world we will find that there is a condition to everything. We know that we will not keep our health if we drink impure water or eat contaminated food, so we punctiliously adhere to the conditions in things adhere to the conditions in things natural. "There are certain conditions at-"There are certain conditions attached to every blessing in the spiritual world," the bishop stated. "One of the greatest dangers in this Christian country is our belief that we will get the blessing even if we don't comply with the conditions."

The candidates were: Norma Taylor, Helen Renne, M. Draper, O. Belcher, Mrs. C. Delaney, Mrs. Brown, Helen Boyce, Iris Turne, Mary Lewis, Ethel Lee, Ellen Phillips, Mar.
