

HAGYARD'S
"ELLOWOIL"

Cures Rheumatism.

man's Worm Powders pleasant to take. Contains their own is a safe, sure and effectual cure of worms in Children or Adults.

RATED

WHISKEY

price in the

MARKET.

LY BY—

AND SON,

Bow Street Distillery

DUBLIN.

Who are not connected with any other Distillery.

SPECIAL EXPORT LABEL

Can be obtained in Bulk or Bott the One, Two or Three Stars by all Dealers from their

Sole Export Bottling Agents,

CHAS. DAY & CO.,

17 Water Lane, London, aug7-12a-1m

NSITES!

otice—all sizes, from

First-class work at company, issuing a kind, or if you want a visiting card up,

COLONIST,

VICTORIA, B. C.

RINS!

SAUCE

SAUCE.

House & Blackwell, London, &c., &c.,

WHERE.

HUART & CO., MONTREAL.

ce.

ERSKINE'S SHOES

RE THE BEST.

VESTIGATE.

R & CO.,

Agricultural Machin-

All Kinds.

and Garden Implements.

AND KAMLOOPS.

and Prices.

mar 1

From the DAILY COLONIST, July 1,
THE CITY.

Not This Week.

As Trustee Richards has not yet called his committee together, it is not likely that there will be any meeting of the school board this week to receive that committee's report.

He is at Work.

In yesterday's issue of the B. C. Gazette a notice is published that the inspector of fruit pests has begun his work, and all those interested are requested to govern themselves accordingly.

Mail Contract.

W. A. King has secured the contract for carrying the mails between Victoria and Esquimalt for the next four years. While the Point Elliot bridge is out of repair, only three mails per day will be carried, but as soon as the bridge is open, the regular four deliveries will be resumed.

Bitten by a Dog.

Last night, as a boy named Watty was passing down Simcoe street, he was attacked by a dog, which jumped out of a garden and badly tore the muscles of his arm. His injuries were of so serious a nature as to necessitate medical assistance.

For Valdes Islands.

Rev. J. N. Galloway, of Queen Sound, Ont., who has been transferred to the B. C. conference for work amongst the Indians, is in Victoria en route to the scene of his future labors. He purposes staying here a few days waiting the return of the Glad Tidings on which he will go north.

A Pane of Glass Broken.

A large pane of plate glass in the store owned by Fall & Co., of Park street, was suddenly broken yesterday morning. How the glass was smashed Mr. Fall is at a loss to know, as he, along with others, was standing by at the time, but could see no reason for it.

Some Fine Gooseberries.

A sample bunch of choice gooseberries was sent in to the Colonist office, yesterday, by Mr. E. Hallist, of Market street. The berries were of the English long green variety, grown from a cutting brought from Cheshire, England, and were very excellent specimens indeed.

To Beacon Hill Park.

The Beacon Hill Park route of the electric tramway service was opened to the public yesterday, but the day being dull and no notice having been given that the service would commence, the patronage bestowed was very limited. But two or three runs were made. The new branch will be in full running order to-day.

Charged with Insanity.

A man named McLeod was taken to the city lockup for sleep walking last night by Sergeants Levin and Hawton. McLeod had been acting very strangely of late, and the police officers suspected the man's sanity was first aroused by his coming to the station and laying a complaint against the E.
& N. railway, the cars of which, he asked, should be made to stop running.

Exchange of Gold Coins.

Yesterday's issue of the B. C. Gazette contains copies of a circular despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies and of the order of the Queen in Council, for the exchange of light gold coins under the Coinage Act of 1891.
The order in council provides for the redemption at the Bank of England in London of all light weight coins of the realm which have not been illegally treated.

Cricket.

Owing to the cessation of postmen of the Victoria-Vancouver cricket match, and in order not to disappoint the Vancouver club, an eleven picked and captained by Mr. C. P. Wolley, will play at Vancouver, to-day, against the Victoria club. The game will be composed as follows: A. S. F.
Morley, A. G. Smith, N. P. Snowden, A.
T. Goward, W. A. Ward, J. N. Holt, C.
P. Wolley, and four officers from H.M.S.
Warship.

The Information Dismissed.

The case of Max Katsner, charged by two Indian hunters with fraud, engaged the attention of the magistrate today at 10 o'clock yesterday morning until 4:30 in the afternoon. The story of the prosecution, for whom Mr. Walls appeared, was a peculiar one, the method alleged to have been employed by Katsner being to deceive the Indians into believing that $5 gold pieces were worth $10 each. Witnesses for the prosecution proved that the complainants were shrewd business men, likely to know the value of the money, and that there were $5 from $10 any time, and as there were a good many contradictions in the evidence the information was dismissed. During the hearing the press table was piled high with the principal exhibits—shining gold and silver coins—the press men being rightly considered the best custodians of the wealth.

How to Celebrate Your Birthday.

On Tuesday Mr. Worlock, President of the Protestant Orphan's Home, and Mrs.
Worlock, gave a delightful birthday treat to the orphans at Shoal bay, the country seat of the late A. G. Green, whose tender care for the little ones will long be remembered. The party, which was the motherly care of the matron, Mrs. Walker, arrived at the scene of enjoyment in carriages and omnibuses at 2 o'clock, their faces beaming with expectation of the pleasure in store for them, and quickly spread themselves in picturesque and animated groups over the lovely beach, where they enjoyed themselves in wading, swimming, boating and contending for the remainder of the afternoon. At five o'clock they returned to the house, where a plentiful and delicate repast, crowned with strawberries and cream ad vintum, was despatched with gusto and celerity. At half past seven the party returned and, after a very good game of turned as they camp, waiting hands and handkerchiefs to their hosts, whose kindness had evidently touched a tender chord in their orphan hearts.

Gazette Announcements.

The B. C. Gazette, issued yesterday, announces officially the following appointments, viz: J. Gilbert and F. Evans to be official stenographers to the Supreme and County Courts for Victoria and New Westminster respectively; G. A. Jordan to be a justice of the peace for Vancouver; E. C.
Arthur, M.D., to be coroner for West Koochichikan district, and W. G. Allan resigned; C.
A. R. Lambly, of Osoyoos, to be a justice of the peace for Yale electoral district; C.
W. Ireland, of Vernon, Thos. Spence, of Armstrong, and C. E. Costerton, of Endersby, to be justices of the peace for Yale; W. C.
McMynn, of Rock Creek, to be revenue tax collector in the Osoyoos division of Yale district; R. T. W. Pearce, of Kam-loops, to be assessor and collector under the Assessment Act, and collector under the Revenue Act for the Kamloops polling division of Yale electoral district, viz: G. C.
Tunstall; E. Walter, of Ganges Harbor, tobe assessor and collector under the Assessment Act, and collector under the Revenue Act, for the Salt Spring Island polling division of the Islands electoral district, vice Samuel Maxwell.

Returning to Victoria.

Miss Esther Lyons, who opens in Siberia at Philadelphia on September 12, will be proceeding in her suit against her late manager, Mr. John E. Rice.

Deeply Regretted.

The funeral of the late Margaret Sinclair took place yesterday from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Rev. D. MacRae conducted the services at the residence church and grave, paying an eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased. The attendance was very large, as the family have a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who unite with them in mourning the untimely death. The floral tributes were abundant and beautiful, the coffin and grave being completely hidden by them.
The following names of guests were noted as present: J. Wallenstein, R. Land-della, G. Deans, R. Rosegall, R. M. Pollock and W. G. Manley.

STATISTICS FOR JUNE.

Marriages on the Increase—A Light Fire Record—Customs Returns.The "statistics" for the month of June, though as yet incomplete, show a generally satisfactory record of the various municipal departments.

The births recorded in the city total 21—

12 girls and 9 "wee laddies."

Twenty-five marriage licenses were issued during the month, and 33 deaths reported to the city clerk.

THE CUSTOMS RETURNS

for June are thus summarized:

IMPORTS.

Free.....$ 26,823

Dutiable.....213,351

Other revenue.....10,729 65

Total.....$ 240,903

Duty collected.....$ 62,856 14

Other revenue.....10,729 65

Total.....$ 80,625 79

EXPORTS.

Produce of Canada.....$ 91,115

Net produce of Canada.....20,410

Other revenue.....10,729 65

Total.....$ 122,254 80

POLICE COURT.

The following cases came before the Police Court during the month: Drunks, 26; bringing stolen property to Canada, 1; vagrancy, 7; where he had been arrested possession of intoxicants, 2; frequenting house of ill-fame, 1; assault, 6; malicious damage to property, 1; infraction of public moral law, 1; infraction of streets by law, 4; infraction of revenue by law, 3; infraction of liquor by law, 1; infraction of park by law, 1; selling cigarettes to boys, 1; indecent assault, 1; refusing to pay wages, 1; damage to property, 1; obtaining property with intent to defraud, 1. The total amount of fines was $207.60.

FIRE RECORD.

June 3—11:30 a.m.; box 23: roof fire at Buck-ley's Hall, Yates street; cause, sparks; no loss.
June 3—11:30 a.m.; box 15: roof fire at residence, east side of Constance street; cause, sparks; no loss.June 6—12:30 a.m.; fire on Herald street, caused by Chinese burning paper; no loss.June 6—12:30 a.m.; box 64: fire at Tebb & Yelland's canoe factory, Broughton street; cause unknown; loss, $1,800.June 6—10:10 p.m.; box 31: fire in two-story brick building, southeast corner Yates and Governor streets; cause, sparks; loss, $2,000.June 20—10:10 p.m.; box 25: fire at W. N. Neal's residence, Quadra street; cause, sparks; no loss.June 27—3:45 p.m.; box 31: fire at residence No. 128 Johnson street; cause, lamp exploding; loss, $15.June 29—1 a.m.; fire in shed near new Boat of Trade building, Bastion street; cause, hot coals setting fire to woodwork; no loss.June 29—11:57 a.m.; box 25; chimney fire at Conservatory street; no loss.Number of fires from Jan. 1 to 30th June, 30. Amount of loss by fire during first six months of 1892, $4,980.

THIRK NEW HALL.

Opening of the Home of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society.The St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society held their first meeting in their new hall, on Blanchard street, last night. President John Robertson occupied the chair, and keeping the members busy responding to his requests for speeches.Mr. W. Templeman spoke in a feeling manner of the loss which the community had sustained in the death of Hon. John Robson. He felt that, as one who had been politically opposed to the deceased, it was fitting, as an expression of the personal regard which he held for the dead Premier, that he should move that a resolution of condolence be drafted by the secretary, in behalf of the society, and forwarded to the bereaved family.

The motion was unanimously carried.

After a few more short addresses, those present were invited to keep her of a liberal repast, accompanied with a variety of liquid refreshments.The society have good reason to feel proud of their new quarters, the hall being neat and attractive, handsomely carpeted and large enough to afford ample seating room to the members and guests.The society will hold their 29th annual gathering at the Caledonian Park, Beacon hill, Monday evening, when a good programme of sports and games will be presented, with numerous prizes for the winners.

THE VILLAIN'S DON'T PURSUE HER

Little Roo Kim Satisfied With Her New Victoria Home.The rescue of Roo Kim from the gang of Chinese toughs who fought so hard to retain possession of her, is one which reflects great credit on the managers of the Chinese Rescue Home. The case, as reported in the dispatches from New Westminster, is one which excited much interest both in that place and here.Her husband was one of the ringleaders of the plot to force the unfortunate woman into a life of prostitution. After her husband fight the girl was brought here, and is now in the Rescue Home.At first, the many stories of alleged cruelty in the Home, with which the Chinese Courtiers have been so long endeavoring to frustrate her, caused the girl to be doubtful, but she has since become very well satisfied. The matron of the Home reported Roo Kim to be in a very good frame of mind, yet, as she is fully reconciled to her new condition. She will be kept until such time as some judicious disposition of her case can be made.While no restriction is put upon her, it is believed that there will be no difficulty in inducing her to remain. Several alleged friends called during the day, but it was thought best to refuse them admittance to the institution for a few days, or at least until the hot pursuit of the infuriated gang who have been forced to give her up has died out.

WILL BE BURIED HERE.

Remains of the Late Premier to be Brought From England to Victoria.A Public Funeral Will be Accorded, and Will Take Place About July 20.From one end of the province to the other grief at the death of Hon. John Robson is universal. The news of the unexpected decease created a feeling which hung like a funeral pall over the whole country, and the sorrow felt is just as sincere as it is general.
Those who best knew the dead Premier were those who best loved him, while many who had not been so circumstanced as to come into immediate contact with him, had learned to respect, admire and esteem him for his many virtues, his conspicuous ability, and for the noble work he had done in the interests of the province.It has been arranged to bring the remains to this city for interment, and there will be a public funeral held on their arrival here.
This, it is thought, will be about July 20.
The casket will be sent from England on one of the Allan Line steamers to Montreal, thence to Victoria, over the C.P.R. The arrangements here will be made by the relatives of the late Premier and his old time colleagues.The comments of the press, both Island and Mainland, show how deeply the loss is being felt. The Times of last evening says it joins in all sincere sympathy in the advancing of the remains to the grave, expressed by the public generally for the honorable gentleman's sudden demise.

It continues:

No person with even slight knowledge of Mr. Robson's character and his career in the province could help feeling startled and pained by the mournful intelligence which came yesterday, and we believe that even those who political foes will hesitate to yield to his memory a fitting tribute. Mr. Robson gave to the service of this province a very large amount of severe labor and mental drudgery, so large an amount indeed that his days were almost certainly shortened in consequence. For his general interests and for the ability which he brought to his service, British Columbia may well hold him in grateful remembrance.The Nainimo Free Press, in announcing the death, said:"This news will be received with regret and dismay by the citizens of this province generally. The news of the death of the late Premier from a laborer to the Premiership of the province by his loving integrity and striking executive abilities. Time will only permit us in this issue to make the bare announcement that he will be a loss to the end of the province to the other."

The Vancouver Telegram said:

The announcement of his death strikes a bolt from a clear sky, a thing totally unexpected by the public at large. We need not say that the Hon. Mr. Robson will be widely lamented in British Columbia, where his services to the province were better known or more highly esteemed.The News-Advertiser which has been in opposition in politics, said:"We are sure that we are only expressing the feeling of the vast majority of the people of British Columbia when we say that the death of Mr. Robson's death will be received with regret and dismay by the citizens of this province. The people of this Province who are opposed to many details of the policy of Mr. Rob-son's administration, and who are not in sympathy with his views, will fully realize that the late Premier had given many years of his life to the service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambition and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people of this Province will fully realize that the late Premier had given many years of his life to the service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambition and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people of this Province will fully realize that the late Premier had given many years of his life to the service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambition and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people of this Province will fully realize that the late Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the interests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and
impartial. The people of this Province will fully
realize that the late Premier had given many
years of his life to the service of his labor and
experience to the interests of the province, and
that it was his ambition and desire to do good
to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people
of this Province will fully realize that the late
Premier had given many years of his life to the
service of his labor and experience to the inter-
ests of the province, and that it was his ambi-
tion and desire to do good to the people of this Province under his direction should be steady and impartial. The people of