Other Ships Get Sailors—Methods of Shipping Men at Sound Ports.

Members of the local Coast Seamen's Union, which body is fighting the crimp and the shipowners' association, do not hesitate to say that several cases of shanghai have occurred in Seattle during the winter. In one case three Swedes said to have been sent to Port Townsend. They were to work at $4 a day loading a British ship at Port Hadlock. The men taken aboard the vessel never landed until she reached port. An order had come from Port Townsend to Seattle for sailors. Money was high. These men were taken.

The bill was reported complete with amendments. Third reading at next sitting of the house. PROTECTION OF CHILDREN. Hon. Mr. Fyfe moved the second reading of the Children's Protection and Reformation Bill. He explained that the bill was framed on similar acts in force in Ontario and that it was designed to give authority to charitable societies and persons to interfere in behalf of children neglected by their parents or guardians, to assume control of them and provide for their proper treatment, and for the reformation of vicious children.

The Blizzard At Cape Nome

One Occurred Late in January and Several Lives Were Lost.

White Horse Reported to Be in Search of Milk for Ten Miles on the Coast.

While the report of a blizzard at Cape Nome early in the year, as telegraphed from Dawson to the Staggway papers, was exaggerated, there was a more serious blizzard here yesterday, refer to a great blizzard which occurred on January 22nd, and gives news of some deaths resulting therefrom. Among the victims was Mr. J. W. Stowe, late of the Yukon, and brother of Freeman Pelton, C. D. Lander's former partner in the Yukon. Mr. Stowe had gone to White Mountain, Dr. Stowe had gone to claim near Solovon. He had his property against a storm. He was on his way back when a blizzard overtook him on the 21st of January. In the terrible wind and snow, he was obliged to stop. A young doctor wandered from the trail, lost his way and after traveling till his strength was exhausted, lay down and died a week without a friendly hand. The body was found on the trail two miles from Solovon two days later.
