serving Canada's Industry on the Atlantic.

Trof. Prince, Dominion Commissioner Fisheries, has just returned to Otva from a trip of inspection in the ritime Provinces. Despite unfavore weather in the early spring the ster fishermen and canners had a fishle season, the commissioner says, catch being quite up to the average. Especial object of Prof. Prince's visit st was to locate suitable sites for the ablishment of lobster hatcheries. The hatchery in Nova Scotla, situated in tou County, has for several years in turning out from one to two miliasmall lobsters annually, and fisherm on the shore of Northumberland ait attribute to this replenishing the aparattive abundance of lobsters, withstanding the exhaustive catches thave been made. Ill the large canneries have, of course, sed for the season, but illegal fishfor lobsters continues on the New maswick coast. The fishing protection amers are making war upon the chers, and thousands of traps have in located and destroyed. The new amer Osttea, employed in the service the oyster culture expert, has been ently pressed into duty also, and at pe Bauld and Cape Tormentine contarted an immense quantity of ropeorings, and traps used illegally by the termen after the close of the season.
