MAY HAVE A BIG SUMMER CELEBRATION HERE

Hotels on the Gaspé Coast Anticipate Record Season In Tourist Trade

PLANS FOR A BIG THREE-DAY EVENT TO BE HELD IN JULY ARE NOW UNDER DISCUSSION

If Undertaking is Considered Feasible Large Programme Will be Arranged For—Track Meet and Boat Races on River Would be Features of the Event—Huge Polio-Mortem Trade's Procession Would Mark Opening Day—Other Particulars.

If the recent discussion of the possibilities of a big summer celebration here is followed by well-considered and energetic effort to carry out such an event, Campbellton may be the scene of a really big affair of that kind in the month of July. The discussion referred to took place recently and suggestions were advanced and tentative plans formulated by those interested.

The promoters of the summer celebration here prefer to avoid publicity for the meantime lest some unconsidered contingencies may show the proposed undertaking to be impractical or too hazardous to insure an adequate monetary return.

World Last Four Days

The idea of the promoters of the summer celebration is to arrange, if possible for a programme sufficiently varied and attractive to hold public interest for three or four days. The organizers of the idea plan to interest the support of some worthy institution or society of hands and make an equal division of the profits with them in return for their co-operation. The two local hospitals would most likely be given the preference in this selection.

Some Festivities

Those behind the movement have expressed their desire to make sure that the proposed event can be made a really big affair which would attract hundreds of visitors from all over the north shore and the Gaspé Coast before going any farther with the matter. If public interest here seems to warrant the expenditure of the time and effort which would be necessary and the sympathy and co-operation of the right parties can be relied upon the first actual steps will be taken shortly in order that this undertaking may have the publicity it needs to make it a success, and also that ample time may be had in which to make every arrangement and secure everything possible in the way of intermediation. On the other hand, if conditions do not assume a promising aspect the matter will be dropped.

The Programme

The tentative programme under consideration should be most interesting if this undertaking is gone on with. This event, it is understood, would begin with a big parade similar to that which was a feature of the Labor Day Celebration held in Campbellton a few years ago. Merchants and others would be asked to arrange a "float" of some kind to appear in the opening parade, prizes being offered for the best float. After the parade would follow the opening of the summer season, which would be marked by a big "gate" day, which would wind up the event. On this closing day games and racing and other sports would be a feature of the event; horse races would also be arranged for and a big "gate" day would wind up the event. On this closing day games and racing and other sports would be a feature of the event; horse races would also be arranged for and a big "gate" day would wind up the event. On this closing day games and racing and other sports would be a feature of the event; horse races would also be arranged for and a big "gate" day would wind up the event.

One particularly good point about the proposed undertaking is the determination of its organizers to carefully avoid any losses in the programme. They realize that in order to draw crowds and hold them, provision must be made for every hour of every day during the event.

Chateau Restigouche will be open for the travelling public and visitors are obliged to suffer the inconvenience of inadequate hotel accommodation. This fact alone tends to make a prospect of this nature much more necessary to make.

NEW MAP OF NEW BRUNSWICK ISSUED

Attractive Advertising for Eastern Provinces—Views of Different Localities

A very fine map of the eastern section of the Trans-Canada Highway, showing the route from Halifax to Saint John, is issued by the Canadian Automobile Association, has been secured by the New Brunswick Automobile Association for distribution. The map, which is in the form of a small folder, shows the main highway in red while the principal towns and cities along the route are plainly marked. On the back of the folder there is an interesting and instructive article dealing with New Brunswick, the summer playground of North America, a land of wonderful rivers and forests, big game, mysterious lakes and mountains. The article is written by Mr. Armstrong, a number of photographs appear on the back of the map, showing beauty spots in various sections of the province. They include views along the Valley Railroad on the Upper St. John, views taken on the road to Moncton, a New Brunswick moose, Sugar Loaf Mountain at Campbellton, scenes along the Kennebecasis, Cain's River, Lepreau River, the cave at St. Martin, the bridge at St. John and many other scenes.

Instead of the ordinary service at Wesley Church next Sunday night, the choir will render Mrs. Wilson's Easter Cantata "Our Living Lord". This is high class music and is sure to be enjoyed by all who attend.

SPECIAL EASTER MUSIC IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES ON SUNDAY LAST

Choirs of All Five Churches Rendered Beautiful Selections Appropriate to the Season.

The choir of Campbellton's five churches are something of which their respective congregations are proud of and on special occasions there is always a treat in store for those who attend.

Easter Sunday was no exception for in the various churches beautiful programmes included many fine solos and duets by leading local vocalists. Special Easter music was also rendered.

Chateau Restigouche will be open for the travelling public and visitors are obliged to suffer the inconvenience of inadequate hotel accommodation. This fact alone tends to make a prospect of this nature much more necessary to make.

Found Home Brew In Private House

An effort on the part of Prohibition Inspector Chas. J. Gray and Peter S. Martin to confine certain suspiciously brewed liquors to their limits was rewarded yesterday afternoon by the discovery of a quantity of home brew in a Ward III residence. The inspectors were assigned a very amiable reception and permitted to search the house without protest. The brew was really found, having been bottled and placed near a stove pipe to "mature". The inspectors were that it is powerful stuff. A quantity will be sent to St. John for analysis.

Wages Sizeable

(Quebec Telegraph)

The Canadian National Railways being now administered by a company, which is to a certain extent independent of the Federal Government, the salary of an employee no longer enjoys exemption from seizure. This point was decided recently by Hon. Justice Letellier, of the Supreme Court when he maintained a claim of $800 against an operator on the C. N. R., Intervenor Division.

The applicant had entered an action for debt against the defendant and the latter had contended that as an employee of a railway belonging to the state his wages enjoyed the privilege extended to federal employees, whose wages are not seizable.

The plaintiff contended that the Intervenor had now been taken over by the Canadian National Railways, which were operated by a company, which was independent of the Government.

WAGES LIKELY IN SUMMER VISITORS TO RESTIGOUCHE

With the approach of the tourist season the hotels along the Bay Chaleur coast in Restigouche County are looking forward to a profitable summer in catering to holiday visitors. The new Bay View Hotel at Jacques River with accommodation for over fifty guests, just completed last fall, is now ready for the season. The attractions of Restigouche County and the Bay Chaleur district for those who seek a quiet, restful holiday by the sea-shore, are steadily becoming better known and with the great improvements now being made to accommodate summer visitors, the coming season should see a great increase in tourist traffic.

The ice bridge opposite town is firm and pedestrians are crossing today.

"WILLIAM TELL" ACT

Hardly, Mont. April 21—"William Tell" stunt, without the apple, resulted recently in the death of Henry Abendroth and the conviction of William Cosgrave for manslaughter.

The two men were employed on a nearby ranch as cowpunchers. Abendroth, holding out his hat, challenged Cosgrave to shoot a hole through it. Cosgrave, reputedly an expert shot, fired and missed. Abendroth then placed the hat on his head and told Cosgrave to try to hit it in that position. Cosgrave fired again and Abendroth fell shot through the head.

Cosgrave was sentenced to from one to two years in the penitentiary but the sentence was suspended and he was released with an admonition.

BABY SHOW ON HOSPITAL DAY

Hotel Dieu Hospital Will Con- duct Show and Hopes for Big Display

On May 12, 1820 almost 104 years ago, when a woman whose name is now buried in the annals of history is gaining fame with the passing years. Florence Nightingale whose birthday is observed as National Hospital Day, has received a greater heritage of fame because of her revolutionizing the profession of nursing, but as a matter of fact, her contributions to the development of hospital service, were at least on a par with her nursing accomplishments.

Florence Nightingale had even a greater influence on hospital development than on nursing and since most of us are familiar with her wonderful accomplishments in laying the foundation of modern nursing, her hospital activities make her an even greater benefactor of humanity. The Hotel-Dieu Hospital is perfecting arrangements for a Baby Show on May 12th. Baby shows are by far the most popular feature of National Hospital Day, and this year there will be such shows in hundreds of towns and cities in all parts of Canada and the United States.

Souvenirs will be given the babies, and their mothers will receive a special individual invitation to the affair. There will be a choice program of music, and refreshments served.

There will be many other interesting and entertaining stunts to be observed on the program at Hotel-Dieu Hospital, National Hospital Day. A cordial invitation is extended to been made by the three Barristers, and said how hard it was for him when he received the news of his appointment, to leave his law career, with whom he had enjoyed so much the practice of law in the County of Restigouche.

Mr. Fidele LeBlanc, Foreman of the Grand Jury, then read an address on behalf of the Grand Jury, consequently on behalf of the people of the whole County of Restigouche. His Honor Judge LeBlanc in reply to the address of the Grand Jury, rose to great eloquence, when he thanked all for the kind things that had been said. It was a great responsibility to be a judge of the Supreme Court of any Province. He paid a high tribute to his immediate predecessor on the Bench the late Judge Chandler, and at an Acadian standpoint, he was the natural successor of that great man, the late Judge Sir Pierre A. Landry. He said that he was not a native of the County of Restigouche, but he had made his home in the County during the last seventeen years, and the people had been broad-minded enough, to deal out great kindness and hospitable consideration to him, notwithstanding that he had been born far away from Restigouche in the County of Westmorland, N. B. It spoke well for the future of our country said eloquently the learned Judge, that a man of his race, should be appointed to such a high position. The French were the pioneers of the Province of New Brunswick. The French clergy had preached the gospel of Christ at the very beginning of our history.
