KING GEORGE'S GIFT TO PRINCESS MARY
London, Feb. 20.—King George's princely wedding gift to Princess Mary is a handsome piece of jewelry, which has already been given to her, says the Daily Mail. She will receive another present from her father before her marriage to Viscount Lascelles.

When you can get them buy made in Canada goods, and when you can't get what you want Canadian-made see if it is not produced in Great Britain or in one of the overseas dominions. When you have exhausted these sources of supply it will be time enough to try and supply your needs and pleasures from some other country.

WILL CONSIDERABLY BEAUTIFY CAMPBELLTON
A special meeting of the town council in committee of the whole was held on Monday morning to consider the advisability of having all telephone and electric light poles removed from the streets on which permanent street work is to be done next summer. All wires will be placed underground if arrangements can be made for this. Handsome ornamental lamp posts with fine cluster lights will be provided in place of the upright poles. It is sincerely to be hoped our town council will be able to carry out this improvement.

SUGGEST BORDEN FOR COMMISSION
London, Feb. 18.—In connection with the desire of the government to find a neutral chairman for the boundaries commission to settle the revived parliamentary frontier between the north and south of Ireland, whose impartiality and judgment shall be universally recognized, the suggestion is made in influential quarters that Sir Robert Borden may be asked to accept the position.

THE REJUVENATION OF OLD DAIRY COWS
Harrington, Pa., Feb. 20.—The principle employed in monkey glands for rejuvenation has been used with success in experiments on cows, it is announced by the State Bureau of Animal Industry. Eleven dairy cows which had become grandmothers many times were made young and frisky by a serum extracted from the glands of cows, the statement said. The old cows were given serum in capsules and did not develop any traits of pigs. They were reported by observers to have become useful again.

SEVEN THEATRES AT WASHINGTON
Washington, Feb. 20.—Seven theatres, including the New National and Poli's—two of the principal play houses in the national capital—were ordered closed last night by the board of commissioners, the governing body of the District of Columbia.

Inspection of play house in the district had been completed by a board of five engineers. The inspection grew out of the recent collapse of the Knickerbocker Theatre, which cost the lives of 98 persons.

The report of the engineers was not made public, but members said that "in most cases" structural weakness and inadequate fire protection had been disclosed by their investigation.

WANTED TO WED HIS STEP-MOTHER

Bangor City Clerk Refuses License as Such Marriage Against Law.

Bangor, Me. Feb. 21.—William Brooks appeared at the office of the city clerk yesterday to enter a vigorous protest against the issuing of a marriage license to his minor son, who he said, wanted to marry his step-mother, the divorced wife of Mr. Brooks.

As the law prohibits the marriage of a man and his step-mother, City Clerk Brett refused to issue a license to the boy when he came after it, having filed his intentions on Feb. 15.

The prospective contracting parties were Frederick Brown Brooks, aged 20, and Mrs. Georgiana Dingle, aged 36, according to the forms tendered the city clerk, but the father of the boy said emphatically that the woman, his former wife, is 48 years old.

In the application for license the boy gave his father's residence as Newcastle (N. B.), while the father claims a residence in Bangor.

The boy and his prospective bride were somewhat dismayed and young Brooks, with tears in his eyes, declared that he would marry the woman somewhere, somehow, if he had to travel all over the world.

When he filed the intentions he was not able to give a very clear and concise statement concerning his parent, the boy being a minor. The disparity of ages, as revealed by the father, did not appear to impress the boy as a matter worthy of any particular consideration or argument. He was in love with her and that was all that mattered. Both parties were born in New Brunswick.
