Mr. W. T. R. Preston, librarian of the Provincial Legislature, returned yesterday from a trip through Iowa, U.S. Mr. Preston had been visiting the World's Fair at

Chicago, and after seeing everything that was to be seen there he and a friend took a trip to lowa.

Mr. Preston's principal object in visiting Iowa was to observe the working of the prohibition law in that State. I owa has one of the strongest prohibitory laws in America, and yet in the largest portion of the State Iowa has one of the strongest prohibitory laws in America, and yet in the largest portion of the State Iowa has one of the strongest prohibitory laws in America, and yet in the largest portion of the State Iowa has one of the strongest prohibitory laws in America, and yet in the largest portion of the State Iowa has one of the strongest prohibitory laws in America, and yet in the largest portion of the State Iowa has one for our Sunday, or in certain hours of the night, and in many other ways the laws are very atringent, and thoy are enforced. It is impossible to get a drink of Inquor of any kind on Sunday. In Council Bluffs, in. however, it is different. Although it is a prohibition town, liquor is openly sold. One hundred and eighty Government licenses are issued in Council Bluffs, and the salcon-keepers vecure immunity from the local law by paying what is nominally a fine, once a mouth, to the local authorities.

Every Sounday the trains carry thousands of people from Omaha to Council Bluffs, and the salcons are filled with crowds of the thirsty imhabitants of Omaha, who must have liquor at any cost. In Des Moines, the capital of Iowa, liquor is also sold openly, and 200 Government licenses are issued a nunally. In Dubque, a town of 30,000 iphabitants, there are four Treweries, six bottling, establishments, ten wholesale liquor stores, thirtyfive hotels and one hundred and eighty-five salcons, which is pretty good for a town of that size, considering that it is a prohibition mit may be added to the condition of the salcons, which is pretty good for a town of the salcons, which is pretty good for a town of the salcons, which is pretty good for a town of the salcons, which is pretty good for a town

BOTH CLAIMED TO BE ORTHODOX And as a Result of the Discussion Litiga-

Some time ago Walter White, a tailor living in Turner-avenue, had a theological discussion with Samuel W. Findlay, a workmen in Nordheimer's piano factory. White is an ardent adherent of the Church of England, ardent adherent of the Church of England, while Findlay is a staunch Methodist. The discussion waxed exceedingly warm and the merits and demerits of their respective tenets were bandied back and forth. Finally, it is said, White threatened to "lick" and stab Findlay. On Aug. 23 last White was discharged at the Police Court by Col. Denison. The autome of the discussion was a suit in the Assize Court yesterday, White entering suit against Findlay for $5000 damages, alleging malicious prosecution. When White was cross-examined yesterday he admitted that Findlay never used violence towards him; he even apologized for using the opprobrious epithets of the night before. The case was dismissed by Judge Falconbridge.

On motion of Ald. McMurrich it was decided to recommend the council to call for tenders at once for the work, the cost not to exceed $25,000.

Ald. McMurrich also moved that, in view of the council adopting the report of the committee in regard to enlargement and extension of the wharf, tenders or offers be asked for for rental of the wharf for shipping purposes and also for use of a portion for the purpose of erection of a cold storage warehouse, and also for a portion or for any

The building was assessed, I believe, in May and at that time it was in a very unfinished state and we had expended $43,000 on it, including the last hod of mortar that had been carried up. It was assessed at $45,000. The act states that it should be assessed "at the amount at which it would sell to satisfy a just debt" (or words to that effect). Does any truthful or sane person believe that an unfinished building of that unique description, in that state, and on which only $43,000 had been expended, would sell for $45,000? I did not ask for exemption for it, as I am in favor of the abolition of all exemptions, but in reply to this Mr. Maughan made a speech to the gallery, stating in effect that in his opinion the taxes should be pled on "these wealthy institutions" and eased off the poor man, etc., etc.

My reply to that was that many wealthy men have contributed towards the building of the T.A.C. as purely a philanthropic institution, calculated to do, in its own way, quite as much good for the young men of this city as the Children's Hospital, for example, does for children, and on those grounds I am of opinion it should be entirely exempt from taxation, if there are exemptions.

Is it not this very "pilling on" of taxes advo-

Is it not this very "piling on" of taxes advo-cated by Mr. Maughan upon institutions that re-tards enterprise in our city?

Trinity University. An open meeting of the Missionary and Theological Association was held in Convocation Hall last night. There was a very large attend-Hall last night. There was a very large attendance, the body of the hall being completely filled with visitors, while members of the university occupied the gallery. The Provost occupied the callery. The Provost occupied the chair and introduced the speakers, Rt. Rev. Edward Bickersteth, D.D.; Bishop in Japan, and Rev. Masazo Kakuzen. The addresses were amost interesting and were listened to with great attention. The collection at the close of the meeting (which amounted to over $18) was in all of the Canadan church missions in Japan.

All sizes kept in stock.

Another slippery sidewalk case, in which the city is again held responsible, was the last case on the docket at the Assira Court last case on the docket at the Assize Court yesterday. Mrs. Veitch fractured her arm last March by a fall and she is suing for $1000. The doctors were examined before the case was adjourned until to-day.

Dyspepsia or indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the bihary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also, being the principal cause of headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, taken before going to bed for a while, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "ASSESSMENT SYSTEM ...
