The final stage on Saturday was shot under great difficulty. The wind blew a perfect gale from the left, and it rained hard throughout the shooting.

PRIVATE HAYHURST. The splendid scores of the competitors

The splendid scores of the competitors were therefore surprising. Hayhurst's score at 830 yards read; 5, 5, 2, 4, 5, 5, 3, 5, 5, 3-33.

Royal Canadian Bicycle Club mented holding a grand garden party on Wednesday, Aug. 14, in Baseball Park.

Additional excitement was lent to the contest from the fact that Boyd, of the 37d Lanarkshire (Scotchman), tied Hayhurst's score of 279. When the contest was drawing to a close it was seen that Hayhurst and Boyd were scoring equally, although it was generally expected that in the end Boyd would win by a few points. When, however, the last shot had been fired, and it was announced that the competitors had tied, the excitement rose to fever heat. Every other range and target was despreciated any very fast time. Moractify, Young, Huise and McKellar from which Hayhurst and Boyd were firing their tie, was enormous, but very quiet.

Private J. H. Hayhurst is not a native Canadian. He was born in Kendal, Wastmoreland Eng. in 1888, and is now

After arriv-ing at more than ordinary professors. ing at more than ordinary proficiency in this branch of industry, the young Englishman left home and went to the manently anywhere. He accepted the position, and has remained with the firm since that time. Personally, the hero of the hour is one of the most popular men in the reginement. He is about five feet nine inches in height, broad shouldered and inclined to be stout. He is a good comrade and a gentleman, and is not afraid to give a competitor advice for fear he might be beaten at the targets. He is one of the most reliable authorities on the canadian to five the firm since that time.
