HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS.

WATFORD, JUNE 15, 1906.

WARWICK.

Mr. G. S. Smith, Petrolia, visited at the home of Mrs. W. S. Smith, Briar Crest.

Miss Alice Tanner, Warwick, spent Sunday with Miss Adelia Thompson, 18 S. R.

The new church in course of erection at Sutorville was slightly damaged by the gale last week.

Wm. Dorman, the enterprising 2nd line market gardener, already has green peas fit for table use.

Dr. A. Harper, who is practicing in Mich. visited at his home here, Mrs. Geo. Harper's, 4th line, last week.

Mrs. R. Collier returned home on Tuesday after a prolonged visit with friends in the east and Petrolia.

During the gale last Friday a number of trees in T. Gavigan's orchard, 2nd line, were uprooted by the hurricane.

Wellington Griffith, who recently underwent a serious surgical operation, lies in a very critical condition at present.

Ex-warden McGillicuddy and Councillor Fitzsimons attended the municipal convention at Sarnia on Wednesday last.

Miss Clara Waterworth, Caseville, Mich., visited her cousins, Misses May and Mergol Luckham, at "Maple Leaf Cottage," this week.

Remember that Wednesday, June 27th, is the date of the big strawberry festival, under the auspices of Zion church and Epworth League, 2nd line south. Watch for particulars later.

The Orilla papers speak in highly complimentary terms of the work accomplished in that town by Brigadier and Mrs. Collier. The past year has been the most successful in the history of army work in that district.

Last week's storm was very severe in this section. A horse belonging to Mr. T. Pearson, of Metcalfe, was knocked down on Front street, Strathroy, by lightning, but the animal was all right in fifteen minutes. Mr. A. Dinning, also of Metcalfe, lost a valuable horse by lightning; Mr. J. Bee, of the same place, lost a steer, and Mr. J. Conkey, of Adelaide, two horses by strokes of lightning. D. Auld also a steer.

During the severe electrical storm on Friday evening of last week, Minnie, the 21 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maddock, 6 sidroad, was struck and instantly killed by lightning. Miss Maddock was assisting her mother skimming milk in the cellar where the fatal bolt came down the chimney. Mrs. Maddock also received a severe shock, falling against the stove and receiving a severe cut in the head. It was thought for a time that she would not recover, but she is now improving. Miss Maddock's funeral took place to the Alvinston cemetery on Sunday and was largely attended. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family in the community.

The musical and literary entertainment which was to have been held in Zion Congl church on Friday evening of last week was postponed on account of the unfavorable weather till Monday evening of this week the 12 inst, when the weather was fine and the evening all that could be desired. The program commenced sharp at 8 o'clock, when the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Kelly, who acted as chairman, called on the Rev. Mr. Hay to open the meeting with prayer. Then followed a program consisting of songs and solos by Mr. D. Luckham, Detroit, and Messrs. Prentis, Morrow, and Luckham, Watford; duets by Messrs. Prentis and Mitchell; quartettes by Messrs. Prentis, Mitchell, Morrow and Luckham; recitations by Miss Vera Muxworthy, Watford, and Miss Ethel Anderson, Birnam; addresses by Revs. Hay, Muxworthy, and Kelly, Watford, and Rev. Mr. Hosking, Warwick; club swinging exercises by Miss Muxworthy, Watford. Miss M. Hume, Watford, was the accompanist for the evening. Each number was well rendered and was highly enjoyed by the audience, who showed their appreciation by their hearty applause. Proceeds of the evening amounted to $50.

PLYMPTON.

Mr. Gordon, townline, lost a valuable cow caused by milk fever.

Mrs. Angus Gordon has returned after a few days visiting friends in Caradoc and Strathroy.

Two weddings in one day made things lively around Wanstead on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Frank Shirk and sister left on Monday to attend the wedding of their sister's daughter, at Detroit, on the 12th inst.

Calvin Hodgins parted with his team of Moorebattles last Saturday to Mr. McCradie of Dresden for the handsome figure of $500.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Thornicroft, who were ready to attend the wedding of the latter's niece, Miss Stinson, of Detroit, on Wednesday, was prevented from going by Mrs. Thornicroft being taken seriously ill that morning.

Between three and four o'clock of Saturday morning last the saw and gristmill at Uttoxeter was burned to the ground. The fire originated in the boiler room and is a great loss to Mr. Thomas Kingston as the insurance, which expired in March, he had neglected to renew. It will also prove a great inconvenience to the farmers of the community for their choppng.

On Wednesday 6th inst. a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. W. C. Peacock, of Wanstead, when Miss Addie, youngest daughter of the late Robt. Peacock, was united in marriage to Mr. H. Baskerville, of Strathroy. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Mr. Mundy in the presence of about 50 guests. Miss Pearl Jones, of London, played the wedding march. The presents were costly and numerous as the bride was a great favorite in the community. The newly married couple left on the noon train at Wanstead amid showers of rice and good wishes for London and other points east.

CHOP STUFF.

Miss Rose Hicks, Wyoming, left for B. C., last week.

Strathroy business men have purchased a street sweeper.

Dr. Charlton Mills, dentist, Petrolia, has located in Southampton.

W. H. Sutherland is removing his family from Napier to Toronto.

Mrs. (Dr.) Macalpine, of Petrolia, is recovering from a long illness.

The proceeds of the Premier garden party at Kerwood amounted to $200.

A number of Forest families have taken up their summer residence at the lake resorts.

Nathaniel McCordie, one of the oldest pioneers in Bosanquet, died on June 1st, aged 76.

Dr. Fred Hodgson, Jackson, Mich., formerly of Bosanquet, died on June 2nd, aged 40 years.

From June 1st to October the 1st, Forest banks and loan offices close Fridays at 1 p. m.

The body of Andrew Prue, engineer of the fishing tug Ariadne, was found in the river near the Pt. Huron elevator last week. Prue had been missing since May 23rd.

An Assyrian couple from Petrolia, were married at Wyoming last week. Open house was held at the bride's home, and congratulations were numerous and boisterous.

The death took place at Strathroy the other day of Agnes Shipley Johnston. Deceased was married at Watford, on June 13th, 1871, to W. J. Johnston, by the Rev. George Gibson.

The ladies of Sarnia raised $3,249.68 for the local hospital by their bazaar, "Trip Around the World." The enterprise and energy displayed in raising this handsome sum for charity does great credit to the ladies of the County town.

Glencoe ratepayers will vote on a bylaw to expand the Aldred foundry in that town. The Fletcher Mfg. Co., of Toronto, are negotiating to take it over, and will manufacture dough mixers, butter tubs, soda water fixtures, etc.

There are only 10 bars licensed in Sarnia, and they pay $450 each, a total of $4,500. Across the river in Port Huron there are seventy-six, and they pay $500 license and a tax of $25 to the federal government, a total of $39,900 per annum. The figures are from the city clerk's office.

Storm In Camp.

The camp at Carling's Height in London experienced the full force of the great thunderstorm on Thursday night. Several tents were prostrated and their occupants drenched to the skin, while their belonging were saked by the heavy downpour. Others were kept busy driving stakes and holding their tents down as best they could through the greater part of the night. Many of the horses stampeded, so that the Hussars had their share of the hardships. A house on Oxford street near the camp grounds had a close call, a tree within twenty feet of it being struck by the lightning and losing a large limb.
