Poetry.

Hymn for the Jubilee, June 30th, 1887.

Bliss out from every steepie
The sweetest of sweetie
To-day in England's Festival,
Her day of wealth and well.

All hearts, all voices mingle
In one great jubilee
God bless our own beloved Queen,
Whom God has made to rule.

In her pure hands the scepter,
The crown and the orb
With states below she has held
For half a hundred years.

It is not all brightness
That gathers round the Throne;
The crown of our Queen has known
Full of our Queen has known.

But pleased hands upheld her
And she the length of days,
And she the length of days,
Thanksgiving songs shall raise.

From India's lofty mountains,
And from each burning plain,
The thousand voices of the East,
Their Emperor and their reign!

And from old England's daughters
On each colored shore,
Shall rise a song, whose echoes
Will ring in our ears no more.

And, hark! A choir of voices
From islands of the sea,
Shall send the surging anthem
From their happy isles to thee.

God save the Queen—oh national
In this great festival
And crown her coming victory
With rays of heavenly light!

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be
Lord's hand in the Kingdom,
To wear the Victor's Crown
Of our Queen.

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be
Lord's hand in the Kingdom,
To wear the Victor's Crown
Of our Queen.

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be
Lord's hand in the Kingdom,
To wear the Victor's Crown
Of our Queen.

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be
Lord's hand in the Kingdom,
To wear the Victor's Crown
Of our Queen.

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be
Lord's hand in the Kingdom,
To wear the Victor's Crown
Of our Queen.

And then the warlike ended,
The victor's hand shall be

A Creaking Hinge

To dry and turn hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges, of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pain. A few drops of this medicine, by its action on the blood, restores the joints to good working order.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has effected, in our city, many most remarkable cures, a number of which have been published in the most experienced physicians. Were it necessary, I could give the names of many individuals who have been cured by taking this medicine. In my own case it has certainly worked wonders, relieving me of Rheumatism, after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—E. H. Lawrence, M. D., Boston, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gout and Rheumatism, when nothing else would do. It has effected every other disease from my system.—E. H. Lawrence, M. D., Boston, Mass.

I was, during many months, a sufferer from Rheumatism, and was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took several bottles of this preparation, and was immediately relieved of my pain. I can testify to its efficacy, and can recommend it to all who are afflicted with this disease.—J. F. Thompson, Va.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Andrew's Friend.

"By the way, what is your Christian name?" he said, "I know the initials 'A. F.' and I wondered when I saw it on your postcard, what it could be."

"It is 'Andrew'—a very common name, and I am sure you will have met many people with that name."

"I have never seen any one to compare with you—you are so pretty and jolly and so full of life!"

"Oh, please don't say anything about it. I am trying to keep myself in a good mood, and I don't want to offend you again."

"But I have never seen any one to compare with you—you are so pretty and jolly and so full of life!"
