SALVATION ARMY NOTES

A very special public meeting will be held in the S. A. Hall at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. Major MacDonald, of Halifax, has received farwell orders and will shortly be taking command of the Montreal Division and this will be his farewell visit to the local Corps. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Salvation Army officers are now in their new quarters and anyone having any piece of furniture they would donate towards furnishing the same kindly let them know.
They are also in need of a large stove for the purpose of heating the barracks.

"When people ask me how I find business, I tell them by looking for it." The fellow that says he can't find business is like the guy that takes a milk pail into the pasture and waits for the cow to back up to it. If you want milk go after the cow. She's willing.

OBITUARY

John C. Balsor.

They passed away at the Middleton Memorial Hospital, August 31st, 1925, Mr. John C. Balsor, at the age of 81 years 7 months.

About two months ago Mr. Balsor was taken to the Hospital where he received treatment on his teeth which was the cause of his death.

The deceased was born at Mount Hanley and lived there the greater part of his life.

Six years ago Mr. Balsor was paralyzed by death from his wife, since then he has visited with his children in U. S. A.

The funeral was held in the Baptist Church, Mount Hanley, September 2nd. The text was from Isaiah 41-6, "And we all do fade as a leaf."

The choir rendered appropriate music.
One of the hymns which was a favorite of the deceased was "When the roll is called up yonder I'll be there."

Mr. Balsor leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Wilkins, of Somerville, Mass., Mrs. I. J. Fritz, of Mount Hanley, N. S., and three sons, Mr. T. H. Balsor, of Brighton, Mass., Mr. W. P. Balsor, of Arlington, Mass., and Fred Balsor, of New York City.

He was laid to rest in the Mount Hanley Cemetery, there to await the resurrection of the just.

The floral offerings were very beautiful, from relatives and friends.
The pall bearers were: Henry Bent, Milledge Slocum, Anthony Slocum, and Lemuel Elliott. COV.

WEDDING

Archibald-Jefferson

Lawrencetown, At St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Lawrencetown, September 9th, Dr. William Charles Archibald, of McLean Hospital, Waverley, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Grace Parnell Jefferson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.
T. Jefferson, of Lawrencetown, Rev.
Robert Miller, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, officiating.

The church was decorated with gladioli, sweet peas and asters. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Kathleen James, the contracting parties entered the church, where the bride, attired in a gown of white brocaded satin and conventional veil and orange blossoms and carrying a shower bou-quet of sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern, was given away by her father.

After the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs.
Archibald and their guests repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Warwick, where a wedding breakfast was served.

The bride's going away dress was navy blue ensemble, with black velvet hat.

After an extensive trip in the Maritime Provinces they will take up their residence in Massachusetts.
Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Hull and Evans Jefferson, of Halifax; Mrs. Herbert Harris and Mrs. Bartheaux, of Moschelle, and Dr. L. L. Crowe and Miss Ethel Daniels, of Bridgetown.

ORDER FROM ONTARIO FOR APPLE BARRELS

Mr. Avard Beeler in conversation with the Editor gave a pleasing piece of news to the effect that the firm of Beeler & Peters had received an order from Ontario for 4500 barrels.
Work of making these up was started at once.

A full grown raccoon boldly strutted into town on Saturday and entered the Windsor Vulcanizing Co.'s store. The animal did not appear a bit timid and close the store basement as a place of rest.—Hants Journal.
