

A man never gets so much good out of a book as when he possesses it.—Sir Arthur Helps.

A SELECT LIST OF POPULAR NEW BOOKS,

Published by ROSE-BELFORD Publishing Co.
60 YORK STREET, TORONTO.

FOR SALE BY ALL BOOKSELLERS.

Any book in this list sent post paid on receipt of price.

Evenings in the Library. By GEORGE STEWART, jr., author of "The Great Fire in St. John, N.B." Cloth, $1. Crown 8vo.

"He betrays a cultivated literary taste, a far more than ordinary knowledge of books and a certain instinct for good writing, which enable him to praise in the right place and often to present suggestions in which are both acute and original. His book affords an excellent introduction to the production of American genius and culture, without the formality of didactic exposition."—N.Y. Tribune.

Pogoniac People. By Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Betty's Bright Idea," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, with illustrations, $1.00, Paper Covers, 50 cents.

"This book illustrates Mrs. Stowe's attractive style being witty and merry with a wholesome humour while made effective as a picture, with the national tone of the more sombre colours and shadows of life and with its varied dramatic elements."

The Life and Letters of Lord Macaulay. By his Nephew, G. Otto Trevelyan, M.P. Complete in Two vols 8vo. Cloth, $2.00, Half Calif, $4.00, Full Morocco, $7.00.

"We do not doubt these volumes will be read throughout the world with a curiosity and an interest only to be surpassed by the success of Lord Macaulay's own writings."—Edinburgh Review.

Thrift; or, How to Get on in the World. By Samuel Smiles, author of "Self Help," "Character," etc. Cloth, neat, $1.00.

Modern Symposium (A)—Subjects: The Soul and Future Life. The Influence upon Morality of a Decline in Religious Belief. By various writers. 12mo. Cloth, $1.00.

"The writers are some of the most notable men in England and are of all shades of belief, and the Rose-Belford Co. has done well in publishing these articles in book form, for they are full of thought well stated, and are provocative of thought on various subjects. They are such as no one who is interested in the subjects dealt with, or who wants to keep up with the thought of the times should overlook."—St. Croix Courier.

Rose-Belford's Canadian Monthly. An Illustrated Magazine. Edited by George Stewart, Jr., author of "Evenings in the Library," "Story of the Great Fire," etc., etc. $3.00 per annum in advance; Single Copies, 25 cents.

"At last Canada has got a first-class magazine of her own. Every Canadian should subscribe for this ably conducted periodical. Rich in illustrated articles, serials, sketches, essays and poetry, it is also strong in its departments, and purely literary papers. The publishers show great enterprise in maintaining the character of the monthly in the spirited way in which they do. If you want the cheapest and best magazine published in the Dominion get Rose-Belford's Canadian Monthly."—St. John Daily News.

"A masterly magazine."—Perth Times.
Walker Collins, Goldwin Smith, Sir A. T. Gait, Sir H. Hucks, Edgar Fawcett, Ed. Eggleston, Prof. Lyall, J. M. LeMoine, and others, write regularly for the pages of the new monthly—a great inducement to subscribers.—Quebec Chronicle.

The Prince of Wales in India. By F. Drew Gray. Profusely illustrated. Crown 8vo. Cloth, gold and black, $1.00; Paper, 75 cents.

A lasting memorial of an interesting journey.—Daily Telegraph.

"Will no doubt find an extensive public, and be read by them with interest."—Nonconformist.

Home Cook Book. By the Ladies of Toronto. Cr. 8vo., Oilcloth Covers, $1.

The receipts contained in this book are supplied by the ladies, and none have been given by them except such as have stood the test of experience in their own households. Unquestionably it is one of the most valuable cook books ever published.

Getting on in the World. By Prof. William Mathews, LL.D. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 75 cents; Half Calif, $2.00.

Worth any day ten times its cost for the tenth part it contains. A book full of sensible sense and sounder soundness we have not seen for a long day."—S. S. Times, Philadelphia.

Hours with Men and Books. By Prof. William Mathews, LL.D., author of "Getting on in the World." One handsome volume, Cloth, $1.00, Paper Covers, 75 cents, Half Calif, $2.00.

"Professor Mathews has achieved remarkable success as an author."—Boston Transcript.

His style is bright and captivating, and his legends of illustrative anecdotes are invariably happily chosen and judiciously used."—Liverpool Advertiser, England.

How to Study. By the Rev. John Schulte, D.D., Ph.D., author of "Roman Catholicism." Cloth, 50 cents.

Nicholas Minturn, a Study in a Story. By J. G. Holland, author of "Arthur Bonnicastle," "Sevenoaks," etc. 1 vol. 8vo., with full page illustrations. Cloth, $1.00, Paper, 50 cents.

The elucidation of the pauper and tramp question forms, in fact, a leading theme of the book. For, like Dr. Holland's other stories, this is "a novel with a purpose." A large part of the interest lies in the relations of Nicholas, the hero, to the "dead beats" of a great city and his extraordinary experiments in their reclamation.

Children of Nature. A Story of Modern London. By the Earl of Desart. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00, Paper Covers, 50 cents.

The Earl of Desart is unquestionably a bold man. He has dared to tell the truth. In "Children of Nature" he has put aside the curtain of conventionality and has displayed to the world society as it really is. The strong sense, the power and truthfulness of this story will have an irresistible attraction. There is a caricature of the Century Club, which is as brilliant as anything of the kind ever done."—London (Eng.) Morning Advertiser.

Creed of Christendom. By W. Rathbone Greg. Crown 8vo. 1 Vol $1.50.

"No inquirer can fix a direct and clear-sighted gaze towards Truth who is casting side glances all the while on the prospects of his soul."—Martineau.

Science and Theology. Ancient and Modern. By James Anthony Froude, author of "History of England," "History of Ireland," &c., &c., and "Sovereignty of Ethics," by Ralph Waldo Emerson. Crown 8vo. Paper, 25 cents.

"Two remarkable papers by two of the foremost authors of the age. Sure to be read with great interest everywhere."—Boston Courier.

Future Punishment. The Question Considered in a Series of Papers on Canon Farrar's Eternal Hope. By Rev. Professor Salmon, D.D., Principal Tulloch, Rev. J. Baldwin Brown, Rev. Wm. Arthur, Rev. John Hunt, D.D., Professor J. H. Jellett, Rev. Edward White, and Rev. R. F. Littledale, D.C.L. Crown 8vo. Paper, 25 cents.

"Most interesting and able. The writers are some of the most scholarly and erudite men in England. Their utterances carry a certain weight with them."—Frederickton Reporter.

Phonograph The, and its Future. By Thos. A. Edison, the Inventor. The Auriphone. By Anon. On the Hypothesis that Animals are Automata. By Prof. Huxley. Crown 8vo. Paper Covers. Price 25 cents.

"A wonderful paper on a truly wonderful invention."—Daily News.

Vision of the Future. A series of papers by Revs. Prof. Plampre, J. H. Rigg, Dr. H. Allen, Canon Birks, Prof. Gracey, S. Cox. Crown 8vo. Paper Covers, 25 cents.

A noble contribution to a stalwart literature.

Oxenham.—(Rev. F. N.) Everlasting Punishment: Is the Popular Doctrine de Fide? and if not, is it true? Considered in a letter to the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, M.P. By the Rev. F. N. Oxenham, M.A. Paper, 25 cents.

"It may be added, in conclusion, that Mr. Oxenham's letter deserves serious perusal at a time when men are proving all things, and endeavouring to hold fast to that which is good."—Canadian Monthly.
