Vol. XIV.

TORONTO, MAY 27, 1899.

No. 11.

THE WARRIOR BRAVE.

"Where are you going, Johnnie?"

"I'm going to the war;"
"Whom will you tight there, Johnnie!" "The same I've fought before!'

"Is it the mighty Turk, Johnnie, The Spaniard, or the Greek ! 'I do not have to sail abroad

My bitter foes to seek.

"I fight them in the pasture, I dare them in the lane;

I'vecuttheheads off hundreds.

Ten thousand I have slain.

"They rally in the garden, Among my fairest seeds.

" Who are those foes, brave Johnnie ?

"I 'spect you you'd call em weeds."

HIPPOCAM-PUS. OR SEA-HORSE.

-ი-

This "strange fish," for a fish he truly is, though belonging to a very odd family—the pipe - fishes-is not an entire stranger to our northern waters, being found along the New Jersey coasts, and quite far up the Hudson River. Some very fine specimens constitute one of the York Aquarium.

The picture gives a striking portraiture of the creature; and what a jumble of oddities—the head of a horse, fins of a fish, tail compounded of a crocodile's and a ring-tailed monkey's, and the ribbed body There isn't anything moof a Chinese lantern! In general he is to "do errands" for God.

found holding on to some sea-weed or frament of shell, swaying backward and forward, with oft repeated and very rapid vibrations of the pectoral fins. If it is his pleasure to release his hold and change his location, he moves in the upright form seen in the engraving, using the large back fin for propulsion. His voyaging,

HIPPOCAMPUS, OR SEA-HORSE.

The Hippocampus is very docile, and points of special attraction in the New easily tamed, and to one who is so fortunate as to obtain a specimen, he will serve for many an hour of leeply interested study and observation.

MISSIONARY HERO.

Now, children, I am going to tell you a story about a missionary hero, and I want you to listen with both your ears and not to be like those idols that have ears and hear not, for when I get through we are going to have questions on what I have read, and I want each one to answer however, is very short; as he generally them right. I will read very slowly:

I will tell you about a man who is called the Father of Missions, for he lived one hundred years ago in England. His name was Carey, and he was a poor man and a shoe-maker. After he gave his heart to Jesus he also gave his life, and as he sat at his shoe-maker's bench, pegging and sewing shoes he kept a book open in front of him and in this way lcarned Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Dutch, and French. One hundred and three years ago he started out alone for India, that great land so full of people who knew nothing of the dear Lord Jesus.

Some one said,

"There is a gold adheres to the first object that lies in his mine in India, who will explore?" Carey answered, "I will go down, but you, brethren, must hold the ropes." Can any of you tell me what he meant by that? He worked there for forty years, preaching and teaching the people about Christ, writing our Bible in their language, so they could read about him themselves, and fighting the Government, who did not want There isn't anything more blessed than, the people taught about Christ, and trying to get them to make laws against Suttee.