PAYNE RECOVERS ITS LATE DROP— SALES AT 108 — STOCKS GENERALLY FIRMER — DEMAND BETTER.

Montreal, October 18

There was a firmer tone to the market today. Sales were more active, about 11,000 shares being dealt in.

On any signs of weakness the market is to cover, this is speedily noticeable in Payne. The confidence has been taken, the market is now active and fluctuations of a wider range.

Payne sold this forenoon at 101 when it opened and at 108, which was the top knot, on any signs of strength there was immediately a demand, caused by shorts covering, the fluctuations were consequently wide and rapid, nevertheless there was a firmer tone caused by a legitimate demand, it is cheap, and should be bought, as it will shortly recover all its lost ground.

Montreal-London was firmer, buyers offering 48, Virtue showed signs of coming to life again with renewed vigor, 32 was urgently offered without causing any sales.

Rambler-Cariboo—sold to the amount of 500 shares at 49, and would have sold at the same price for more had there been any stock offering.

A substantial block of Dardanelles sold at 10, 5000 shares changing hands.

Big Three was quieter, with the demand less urgent, it sold however at 15.

There is no demand for Golden Star, present holders are satisfied to await further developments.

Of the unlisted stocks King sold at 21 to the amount of 1900 shares. There was a broken lot of Republic sold at 11 1/2 of one hundred shares.
