

devotion towards the most Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ."

His Grace Archbishop Begin appoints the 20th, 21st, and 22nd of this month for the Solemn Triduum in the Ursuline monastery, and in doing so has had the admirable delicacy to make his predecessor's letter of authorization do service again this year, as it did two hundred years ago, and for the same purpose. The exercises in the monastery chapel are to be the perfect reproduction of the solemnity of June 1700. It may be interesting to our readers to know that the first Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi in the year 1700 fell on June 18th.

WAIT A MINUTE.

Did you answer "Wait a minute"?
 Ah! look out! there's mischief in it.
 Often it would make you lose
 Many a pleasure you would choose;

There's a reason old and true,
 Let me whisper it to you:
 Laggards always come too late:
 Time and tide for no man wait.

If some kindly friend should say;
 "You shall have your wish to-day,
 Anything that you may ask,
 If you perform a certain task;

"When, my boy, will you begin it?"
 Would you answer, "Wait a minute?"
 No, indeed! you'd be a dunce
 If you did not say, "At once!"

There's a thief, Procrastination,
 Wait a Minute's near relation.
 Watch them both — they'll steal your time;
 That's the moral of my rhyme.
