Gleanings.

SUPPRESSION OF INTEMPERANCE.

We have received, from a Municipal Functionary, a copy of a Bill drawn up by him for the accomplishment of this object. He says it is in the hands of several Members, has been commended by Sir J. B. Robinson, and will be introduced to the Legislature. What it contemplates is the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors, at any licensed premises in Upper Canada, except under certain certificates, between seven o'clock on Saturday night and eight o'clock on Monday morning. He is auxious that Petitions should be got up in favor of the Bill. It is unquestionable that a large portion of the vice and crime in the country may be traced to drunkenness, and all good men must be earnestly desirous of its prevention.

LIBERAL BEQUEST.

The late Rev. Richard Dill has left a munificent bequest to the Magee College, Derry, Ireland. We understand that the sum immediately available amounts to about £7,000 stg., and that on the death of certain relatives, who have a life interest, the greater portion of the residue of his estate is to be inherited by the same institution, to which he has also bequeathed his valuable library.—Belfast Banner.
