

THE IMPRISONED WOMEN OF CHIPPING NORTON.

Mr. Wm. Mackenzie, of Trevor-square, Knightsbridge, writes that he took down the following statements by two of the women sent to prison by the magistrates at Chipping Norton on Sunday morning:—

STATEMENT OF MARY PRATLEY.

I was nursing my baby from the breast, the child was only ten week old; I had as good a breast of milk as any woman in England when I went to prison, but while there had scarcely any, owing to my not having proper food. I had nothing but bread and skilly; I felt the want of a little tea very much. I got rheumatism in my shoulders and limbs very bad, chiefly, I think, owing to the night drive, which was both cold and wet. The doctor came each morning; he looked at my hand the first day. He made no enquiry either about my state or that of the baby. My baby was taken away undressed from the Chipping Norton police-station in the middle of the night. I begged Superintendent Lakin to give me time to put the child's clothes on, but he refused, saying, "You must come at once, there is no time to mess about." We were placed in the open van. I wrapped up the child the best way I could in its clothes. The child took a very bad cough, and coughed till it was black in the face on Sunday, when we were in the prison, and the matron saw it. My baby was accustomed to have a little sop, with sugar. I told the matron the child would not take the sop without sugar. She said no sugar was allowed. I was allowed only half a pint of milk morning and evening for the child. Neither the governor nor the chaplain, nor the doctor, nor the visiting Magistrates ever asked whether I had food enough for the child or myself, or whether I was suckling the baby.

STATEMENT OF ELIZABETH PRATLEY.

I had while in prison nothing but bread and skilly, no milk, beer, or meat, or broth. My baby, seven months old, was with me. I received for it what they called a pint, but it was not more than three-quarters of a pint of milk, twice a day, not near enough for the child. No milk was allowed for the child during the night. The child suffered very much for the want of proper nourishment and from their being no fire in the cell. I also suffered from want of better food and from cold. I could hardly sleep at nights. I hardly got an hour's sleep any night. The child could not sleep at night, it was so hungry. The doctor saw me twice, but made no enquiry about the baby nor ever looked at it. The child caught cold and coughed so much the night before last (Friday) night I thought it would have died. The child was not unhealthy, but was never strong, and has been a great deal worse since. I got a very bad cold from traveling by night, and, from the dampness of the prison cell. I could hardly speak the day after I came home, my throat and chest was so bad and my limbs ached so. I am still not well by a long way.

THE ACADEMY.

When did they come? did you say they were good? And why are they favorites of old? Because they were born and raised in our midst, And are gentlemen both I am told? Their names are respectfully Sage and John, And be sure they are good on their feet. Those Richardson Brothers are truly immense, And to see them is really a treat.

Miss Lea is also a star in her line, With her there are few to compare, Her voice is so sweet, and she dances so neat, With a heart that is free from all care, Miss Gertrude and Leslie, and Miss Fanny Wood, Are favorites in good standing still; While West, Wood, and Carle, are equally good, With the great Pantomimist Saville.

And now since the races are over, and those Who beat, got the prizes they won, There is only one place to receive a good treat, And the place to have plenty of fun; It's on Colborne street, the people's retreat, Which now is in great popularity, Where nothing is said, that may not be read, And mirth without any vulgarity.

LIGHT GAINS
MAKE A HEAVY PURSE

The experience of all our readers will bear out the truth of the above, for among the list of all who have grown rich, how true it is that it uniformly came from small beginnings. They that seek great profits meet great losses, and the best and surest way to make a heavy purse is to begin now and save something out of each week's earnings.

THE PEKIN TEA COMPANY,

MUTUAL BENEFIT ACCOUNT BOOK

Propose to introduce a system of trade by which they guarantee the payment of THREE PER CENT for all cash paid for merchandise at their counter, as an inducement to secure patronage.

Each Book contains a printed certificate, which is signed by the proprietors, certifying that they will pay to the holder three per cent on all cash purchases at the end of each month.

The advantage of this system is, that the purchaser in no way assumes any of the liabilities of company business, either by deposits or otherwise, as the merchandise which he receives in exchange for his cash, is sold as cheap, if not cheaper, than any other house in the Dominion, from the fact that the purchaser is only held by the particular inducements which have been pledged to him, in the rate at which he can buy his goods and the percentage offered for his patronage.

In the adoption of this plan the consumer may no longer dread the visit of the Tax Collector or the Insurance Agent, and he may no longer be deprived of the joy to be realized in the possession of even a small sum which has been deposited in the Savings Bank, and now steadily and silently labors to increase its amount, and thus swell the income of the depositor; for the stream which has so long flowed in channels, without leaving an evidence of its power to contribute to the wants of man, has at last been developed, and will in future send forth the products of its unwearied labors to add increased comfort to human existence.
