"Fagging" has become entirely obsolete at Eton. Thirty years ago it was carried on with great brutality. The story of "Tom Brown at Rugby" has, it is said, done more to kill the old system in English colleges than any other agency.

An interesting relic in the custody of Miss Ball, a relative of General Washington, living at the Louise Home, is the painting of a little girl holding in her arms a kitten. The picture is said by connoisseurs to be very fine, and is the work of Joseph Hopkinson, the author of "Hail Columbia," and the son of Francis Hopkinson, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This gentleman was the grandfather of the well-known writer Francis Hopkinson Smith, and it is probably from him that the author of "Colonel Carter of Cartersville" inherited his artistic talent.—Harper's Bazar.

THE DIMPLE CHEEKED VILLAGE MAID may not retain her dimples and rosy cheeks "blooming with health," until she finds a good husband. A little neglect or accident may bring about some one of the many "female" diseases and "weaknesses" to which the sex is subject, and health may be forever impaired, and hopes and happiness be at an end. Thanks to Dr. Pierce, his Favorite Prescription, prepared by him for women, cures the worst cases of uterine diseases, nervousness, neuralgia, irregularities, and "weaknesses." It is a great invigorating tonic and nerve, and rapidly builds up the health and strength.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, for constipation, sick headache, biliousness, indigestion. Once taken, always in favor.

A substitution of camels as working animals for horses and oxen has been going on for a few years past in several provinces of Russia, and they are now common on many large estates and on smaller properties. They perform all the work in farming for which horses and oxen are used, as well as being efficient in transportation. A camel market has grown up at Orenburg, and the animals bring sixty or seventy roubles, or about thirty-five dollars, delivered at Kiev.

A Tonic

For Brain-Workers, the Weak and Debilitated.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

is without exception, the Best Remedy for relieving Mental and Nervous Exhaustion; and where the system has become debilitated by disease, it acts as a general tonic and vitalizer, affording sustenance to both brain and body.

Dr. E. Cornell Esten, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have met with the greatest and most satisfactory results in dyspepsia and general derangement of the cerebral and nervous systems, causing debility and exhaustion."
