

provided that the persons concerned or their legal predecessors were also Canadian citizens in accordance with the foregoing definition on the date on which the claims arose or in the case of claims arising under Article 26 of the Treaty of Peace with Hungary, were eligible to claim under the provisions of that Article.

(2) "Hungarian citizens" shall mean:

- (i) physical persons possessing Hungarian citizenship; and
- (ii) juridical persons incorporated or constituted under Hungarian law.

ARTICLE IV

(1) The Canadian Government declare that full payment of the amount referred to in Article I shall discharge the Hungarian Government and Hungarian citizens from their obligations to the Canadian Government and to Canadian citizens in respect of all matters for which provision for settlement is made in Article I. Upon that discharge, the Canadian Government will consider as finally settled all claims for which compensation is provided under Article I, whether or not they have been brought to the attention of the Hungarian Government.

(2) The Hungarian Government declare that the amount referred to in Article I has been arrived at taking into account:

- (i) all liabilities in Hungary of Canadian citizens in respect of property, rights and interests to which the settlement under Article I relates; and
- (ii) all claims of the Hungarian Government in respect of blocked and vested Hungarian assets in Canada.

(3) The Canadian Government and the Hungarian Government agree that neither shall present to the other, on its behalf or on behalf of any person included in the definition of Canadian or Hungarian citizens, any claim of the type for which provision for settlement is made in Article I, or any claim in respect of similar measures taken in Canada, nor will either government support such claims.

ARTICLE V

The distribution of the sum mentioned in Article I is within the exclusive competence and responsibility of the Canadian Government.

ARTICLE VI

(1) The Canadian Government shall obtain all documents of title which are available relating to the claims under Article I.

(2) If such documents relating to any claims are not available the Canadian Government shall obtain a document signed by the person to whom the payment is made, surrendering all claims to which the payment relates.

(3) The Canadian Government shall retain custody of the documents obtained in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article and shall deliver to the Hungarian Government such documents relating to each claim as soon as possible after the final payment mentioned in Article II shall have been made by the Hungarian Government.
