ARTICLE 22

Settlement of Disputes

1. If any dispute arises between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall first endeavour to settle it by holding consultations in accordance with Article 20.
2. If the dispute is not resolved within sixty (60) days of the beginning of consultations pursuant to Article 20, the Contracting Parties may decide to refer the dispute for decision to a person or body, or either Contracting Party may submit the dispute for decision to a Tribunal of three arbitrators, one to be nominated by each Contracting Party and the third to be appointed by the two arbitrators. Each Contracting Party shall nominate an arbitrator within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt by the other Contracting Party of a written notice through diplomatic channels requesting arbitration of the dispute and the third arbitrator shall be appointed within a further period of sixty (60) days. If one of the Contracting Parties fails to nominate an arbitrator within the period specified, or if the third arbitrator is not appointed within the period specified, the President of the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organization may be requested by either Contracting Party to appoint an arbitrator or arbitrators as the case requires. If the President is of the same nationality as one of the Contracting Parties, the most senior vice-president who is not disqualified on that ground shall make the appointment. In all cases the third arbitrator shall be a national of a third State, shall act as President of the Tribunal and shall determine the place where arbitration will be held.
3. The Contracting Parties shall comply with any decision given under paragraph 2.
4. The expenses of the Tribunal shall be shared equally between the Contracting Parties.
