

will protect the future quality of these waters.

While in Washington on June 10, Mr. Sharp and Mr. Davis will also be meeting with Secretary of State Rogers, and will be raising broader aspects of Canada-United States environmental problems, including not only these Great Lakes pollution problems, but also the threat of oil spills on our Pacific Coast which could result from the movement of oil from Alaska.