

The agreement also provides for cooperation between Canada and Denmark in obtaining and improving the hydrographic and geodetic knowledge necessary for more precise charting and mapping of the region covered by the agreement.

... A chart showing the agreed dividing line of the continental shelf between Canada and Greenland is attached to this release.