

- CHAP. 5. Accounts from Germany of the state of religion in the English army—The first conference—The labors of Messrs Wesleys and their coadjutors—Mr. J Wesley's marriage—He resigns his fellowship.....
- CHAP. 6. Mr. J. Wesley's illness—Renewal of Mr. C. Wesley's labors—Minutes of the Conference against Antinomianism—Protest of Mr. Shirley—Mr. Fletcher's writings—Anecdote of Mr. Wesley—Deed of Declaration
- CHAP. 7. Death of the Rev. Charles Wesley—View of his Character
- CHAP. 8. Latter end and Death of the Rev. John Wesley—Review of his Character
- CHAP. 9. Miscellaneous accounts of Methodism to the year 1810.

BOOK IV.

Containing a Biographical Account of some of the first, and some of the most eminent Preachers in Connection with Mr. Wesley.

- CHAP. 1. A short Account of the Rev. John Fletcher.....
- CHAP. 2. A short Account of the Rev. William Grimshaw.....
- CHAP. 3. A short Account of the Rev. John Nelson.....
- CHAP. 4. A short Account of the Rev. Joseph Benson.....

PART II.

OF METHODISM IN AMERICA.

BOOK V.

Containing an Account of Methodism in America till the Organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

- CHAP. 1. The Rise of Methodism in New York—Its rise in Maryland—The First Methodist Meeting House in America—The first Conference.....