

WORDS

- actionable per se, 66.
 all material, must be pleaded, 352, 354, 355, 357.
 applicable to class of two, 49-50.
 defamatory of manufactured goods, 145.
 defamatory of patent rights, 145.
 evidence of meaning of, 801.
 "for sworn," when word not actionable, 15.
 hurtful to a person in his office, profession, etc., actionable, 4.
 importing only an inclination or intent, not actionable, 34.
 imputing an attempt to commit a crime, actionable, 35.
 imputing contagious disease, 37-40.
 imputing crime, 9-36.
 imputing criminal breach of trust, 20.
 imputing fraud or fraudulent conduct, 22-23.
 imputing unchastity, construction of, 45.
 meaning of, how affected by surrounding circumstances, 706-708.
 meaning of, how to be gathered, 31.
 must be distinctly stated in pleadings, 47.
 must be used in a felonious sense, when imputing crime, 33.
 not actionable per se, 67.
 not intelligibly defamatory, may be shewn to be defamatory, 685.
 of double meaning, 387.
 of low abuse, construction of, 88.
 of suspicion, belief, or opinion, 33, 34.
 of vulgar or general abuse, not actionable, 34.
 plea to, without innuendo, 397.
prima facie actionable, may be shewn to be innocent, 711.
prima facie imputing crime, used in a different sense, 32, 33.
 proof of, in slander, 156-158.
 proof of knowledge of matter referred to by, 686.
 proved different from those charged, 395.
 referring to a class of persons, 94.
 referring to some act which, if committed, would be a crime, ~~and~~ actionable, 34.
 spo~~ntaneously~~ pothetically, 396.
 test~~ing~~ words being actionable, 375.
 st~~atement~~ offence, words imputing, 24.
 "touching" plaintiff in his office, profession, trade, or business, 99, 101, 102.
 used in a peculiar sense, publication affected by, 182.
 when actionable per se, and when not, 1.
 where words refer to plaintiff and other persons, 94.