

F-012-1918 CL-81

Domínion Chautauqua Program

FIRST DAY.

- Morning: Organization of Junior Chautauqua.
- Afternoon: Popular Concert and Entertainment by THE WELSH GLEE QUARTET, featuring Joseph E. Batchelor, Monologist, and George E. Jones, in costumed presentation of songs of the London costermonger.
- Evening: Concert and Entertainment by THE WELSH GLEE QUARTET.
- Lecture: "New Ways of Feeding the World," by HENRY A. ADRIAN, "The Luther Burbank Man," a well-known lecturer who has worked in close touch with the California Wizard and has a most timely message.

SECOND DAY.

- Morning: Junior Chautauqua Activities.
- Afternoon: Musical Concert by THE CHAUTAUQUA ARTISTS, featuring the Canadian Baritone, MR. HARTWELL DeMILLE, and the American Violinist, MISS MARTHA ALEXANDER.
- Lecture, "The Kingship of Man," FATHER P. J. MacCORMY, the noted Paulist Lecturer and Orator.
- Evening: Musical Program by THE CHAUTAUQUA ARTISTS.
- Great Illuminated Lecture, "THE STORY BEAUTIFUL," by the Noted Priest Orator, FATHER P. J. MacCORMY.
- The Most Beautiful and Impressive Lecture Known to the Chautauquas.
- Musical Setting Rendered by THE CHAUTAUQUA ARTISTS.

THIRD DAY.

- Morning: Junior Chautauqua Activities.
- Afternoon: Patriotic Concert and Entertainment by THE ROYAL DRAGOONS.
- A Wonderful Singing Band.
- Evening: Concert and Entertainment by the ROYAL DRAGOONS.
- Lecture, "If I Could Live Life Over," by Colonel GEO. W. BAIN, the eloquent Kentuckian who has had more than forty years of active experience on the platform. One of America's most beloved private citizens.

NOTE—The forty-eight minor leaves on the service flag cover of this program honor the forty-eight former Colt-Alber men now with the colors. All members of the talent have fulfilled their obligations to their respective governments.