Steps taken to hurt them in their Interest, by this perverse and proudest of People, who, under the Mask of extraordinary Sanctity and Conscience, lord it over their Fellow-Subjects.

Whatever be the Consequence, all our Misfortunes can be charged no where but upon our People themselves, and I have shewn that it would be plainly repugnant to their Interest to remedy Grievances. All Redress therefore, must, if it comes, come from his Majesty, and the British Parliament, to whom our distressed and melancholy Condition must be humbly fubmitted. If our Case is longer overlooked, I shall soon begin to think of returning, to spend the small Remainder of my Days in quiet with you, and to leave my Bones in the Land where I drew my first Breath. Mean while, permit me to affure you; that,

I am, &c.
