BUYS ON BLOOR

ment Possibly.

What is considered in real estate circles as being an exceedingly cheap, purchase was made yesterday of the old Hodgins Estate property at 23 Filoor west. The land has a frontage on Bloor-street of 143 feet. Sixty-six feet of this runs back 200 feet, the bal-ance has a denth of 124 feet.

ance has a depth of 134 feet. Theprice-paid was $500 a foot. John L. Macdonald, real estate broker, acted for all parties. The property was sold by C. H. Ruggles, who has held it for atout 18 months, to Alfred Hawes. The purchaser now controls two The purchaser now controls two upartment houses. Spadina Gardens and Sussex Court, and it is more than probable that he will build another spartment on the site, which is admirapartment on the site, which is admirably suited for such purpose. It is also the only large piece of land available on Bloor-street, anywhere near Yonge. There has been some talk of securing a site in this vicinity for a ten or twelve-storey apartment, which would have a ballroom and dining-room. The intention was to establish an up-town cafe. This purchase may have some connection with the scheme.
The property lies just west of Balmuto-street, and just east of the proposed extension of Teraulay-street to Bloor. Land three hundred feet east is held at about $1300 a foot, and offers of over a thousand have been turned down. It is said that Mr. Hawes has alreacy had opportunities to make a handsome profit on his purchase.
