

SYNOD DISCUSSES SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Question of Co-operating
With Other Churches
Taken Up.

EDUCATIONAL SUNDAY

October Twentieth is Set
Apart for Special Observation.

The question of co-operating with other bodies in conference upon child study and work in the Sunday schools was taken up somewhat vigorously during the afternoon session of the general synod of the Church of England on Saturday.

The Bishops of Fredericton and Algoma raised an objection to the clause upon religious education, which was put to the meeting as follows:

"The representatives of the various boards, after careful consideration, have agreed to form a joint advisory council to be known as the Religious Education Council of Canada, for the purpose of conferring and advising together in matters of common interest, the fundamental principle of the organization to be the autonomy of each co-operating body, acting as a unit through its own representatives and retaining complete supervision of its own work."

The Rev. Dr. Tucker spoke in defence of co-operation with those of other churches in the matter of advice and helpful conference. "If in this great day of God," he said, "when all the world is the melting-pot, as the period of reconstruction, we refuse to meet with those men in other churches outside of our own body, who are working for God, and are just as anxious to save and work for the children as we are, I think our church is in a very bad way."

A clerical delegate from the west spoke in favor of closer co-operation, especially in prairie districts, with other churches.

After considerable discussion and expression of opinions from both clerical and lay delegates, Bishop Richardson of Fredericton again rose to claim that his objection had been misunderstood by the meeting. He did not attack the idea of co-operation with other bodies, but he did object to the word "principle" being inserted in the clause. He did not think it right that the Sunday school commission should have the right to decide for the whole church upon the subject of what should or should not constitute a principle.

An amended form of this clause was then submitted to the assembly, leaving out the word "principle," and its acceptance advised by his grace the primate, who said, "It seems to me an anomaly that this meeting should not trust a body composed of the bishops of this assembly. Personally I would be ashamed to occupy this chair and see such a thing happen. Trust your bishops, they will safeguard the interests of the church."

Agree to Co-operate.

The motion was then put to the vote and a member of the house, raising objection to the usual form, it was taken by ballot, the majority being in favor of the motion. In the lower house the numbers were as follows: For the adoption, 46; against, 18.

It was proposed that the third Sunday in October be observed in the churches as "Educational Sunday" rather than as "Children's Day."

It was also decided that the synod recommend the adoption of a general budget for all work coming under the general synod.

The nomination and election of delegates to serve upon the executive council of the synod was the first business taken up at the morning session.

Honor Edith Cavell.

Dr. Abbot Smith presented the report of the committee upon holy orders.

The recommendation was made by a delegate, Capt. A. B. Mellish, that the name of "Edith Cavell," nurse, be included in the list of special remembrances upon the church calendar against October 12, as follows: That the calendar with the table of lessons be amended by inserting on October 12 "Edith Cavell, nurse"; also that in the general opinion of the general synod newspaper and other publications in referring to chaplains, should use the English form, namely: Chaplain the Rev.

It was also moved that $475 be placed at the disposal of the house of bishops towards defraying the cost of the expenses of the Bishop of Fredericton during his recent visit to the front.

The business of today's session will be the revision of the prayer book.

CHURCH TODAY NEEDS GREAT DRIVING FORCE

Ezekiel's vision of dry bones formed the text upon which Rev. A. I. Doull, bishop of Kootenay, based his hopes of a new inspiration within the church of the future, in an address before the congregation of St. Paul's Church, East Bloor street, on Sunday morning.

Organization expressed only an aggregation of well connected, lifeless units, said Bishop Doull, unless motive power was surging behind, thru and around its centralization. Ezekiel had seen the vision of bones forming into a cohesive well formed whole, but what was this without the driving force of the breath of God? The need of the church today, concluded the bishop, was a revival of the breath of God within its ranks. The war was helping to this end, and opportunity now well seized might express years and years of future inspiration and power.

BOYS ARE GIVEN MEDALS FOR WORK

Fifteen Honored at Industrial School for Helping Farmers.

Sir William Hearst on Saturday afternoon, on behalf of the Province of Ontario, congratulated 15 graduates from the Victoria Industrial School, Mimico, upon their splendid summer work in the fields. He also congratulated Chas. Ferrier, the superintendent of the school, upon the remarkable success of the parole institution inaugurated this year and of which the 15 boys were worthy examples.

These 15 boys were presented with certificates from the school and medals from the department of labor, represented by Dr. Riddell. The names of the boys who honored the name of this school were: Lemuel Craig, John Loveridge, Thomas Leitch, Gordon McNab, all of Toronto; Leslie Jones, Ottawa; George Scott, Fred Payne and Carvell Walker, all of London; William Lacey, Hamilton; Charles Easter, Brockville; Hildreth Hunt, Palmerston; Frank Hall, Port Arthur; Ivan Raymond, Fanny Sound, and Henry Nolan, Schreiber.

Leslie Jones, Ottawa, is said to have earned more in the fields than any other of the 800 boys from all over the province. The 15 boys earned $2000, in the aggregate during the summer season. They were on temporary parole while thus engaged, and as a reward for their loyalty and enthusiasm were granted permanent parole, which in this case of industrial school means a final look at the world.

Among those present at the ceremony was the son of the deputy-superintendent of the school, Captain Gordon Grant, who was wounded in France and has joined the Siberian expeditionary force. Others present were: Beverly Jones, Alder, W. W. Hills, G. Tower Ferguson, Fred Stuart, Dr. W. A. Riddell and Inspector J. J. Kelso.

Methods Serve Results at Goodyear

Goodyear is not limited to any one method of building tires, on account of small production or cheap trade.

That Goodyear has developed the most important improvements in tires and tire-building is evidence of our desire to progress—to build bigger business by better quality.

In the Goodyear factories methods must serve results. The only standard is Tire Quality.

If human skill can perform an operation best, the most highly trained specialists are secured for that work.

Where precision and uniformity above the ability of human performance are essential, unerring machines are used—especially invented for the purpose.

Goodyear does not adhere to the "old" if the "new" is better for quality. Our progress in the science of manufacture is too rapid. Our intensive study of tire problems demands constant refinements.

But in Goodyear Sales you will find the evidence of Goodyear results. Lower tire-cost-per-mile alone could build the largest sale of any tire in the world.

WAR GIVES CHANCE FOR GREAT SERVICE

The principle and extension of service was the theme of the address of the Bishop of Columbia on Sunday morning at Holy Trinity Church. The Right Rev. Dr. C. D. Schofield, B. the youngest bishop of the Anglican Church in Canada and was ordained 25 years ago. He is a graduate of King's College, N.S.

During the course of his address, Bishop Schofield pointed out that the war, while deplorable from all points of view, had strengthened the arm of service from every quarter. The call of service, he stated, had met an increasing response from every walk of life, from the highest in the land to the most lowly.

DEALERS WORKING IN HARMONY NOW

Co-operating to Give Best
Service in Supplying Coal to Toronto.

The coal dealers of the city are co-operating, for the first time—among themselves—and in conjunction with the civic authorities are working out a scheme looking to a more equitable distribution of coal. A meeting was held Saturday morning but it was announced afterwards that final plans had not been worked out. However, it is thought that a card system will be adopted under which returns will be made to a central depot from which the coal will be delivered and a check kept on what each individual gets and requires.

On Monday the coal men who have appointed the following committee will confer with the board of control in the mayor's office: E. Wheeler, Charles McGill, H. G. Ratcliffe, Clifford Marshall, D. K. B. Jacques and Frank Rodgers.

Outlook is Better.

The Canadian Patriotic Fund, which did good work last winter in looking after supplies of coal for the families of soldiers overseas, is again busy and Angus MacMurtry, K.C., who is chairman of the coal committee, thinks the outlook, everything considered, is better than it was last year when 500 families were supplied with coal to the extent of 2200 tons. So far this year 2000 tons have been delivered, at the rate of 500 a month.
