HEAR POWER CASE DURING JANUARY

Ontario Hydro, It is Claimed, Owes Toronto Power Co. Over a Million.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—Sir Walter Cassels, chief judge of the exchequer court, has fixed Jan. 7 for the hearing of the Toronto power case, in which the claim against the government is a million and aq uarter. The Ontario Hydro is a party to the case. In 1917, Sir Henry Drayton was appointed power controller, and in that capacity he ordered the Toronto Power Company to deliver additional power to the Hydro to supply war industries. The company claim $1,242,000, while Sir Adam Beck is willing to pay only $172,000, or practically the rate he secured in the re-sale of the power. The case has therefore been put into the exchequer court to adjust the claim. W. N. Tilley, K.C., has been retained by the government as counsel.

JELLICOE COMING

Famous Admiral to Arrive in Toronto Saturday After Completing Tour of Empire—Speaking at Massey.

Toronto will welcome another distinguished man on Saturday when Admiral Viscount Jellicoe will arrive for the week-end. This famous British seaman is in Canada to take up with the Dominion government the matter of its future naval policy. He will speak at Massey Hall on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Navy League of Canada and this will be his first public appearance. As a result of the strain of work which brought him to Canada, the admiral will not make another public appearance, so Torontonians and people from the province at large will not have another chance to hear his message. His message should be an interesting one as he has just completed a tour of the empire. While in Toronto he will be the guest of George W. Beardmore and will visit Niagara Falls while here. A guard of honor from the Boys' Naval Brigade will meet his train and form a lane for his exit from the station to his carriage.

SMALLPOX SHOWS MARKED INCREASE

Dr. Hastings Investigating Pros and Cons for Vaccination.

The smallpox outbreak is having its ups and downs—one day there is a decrease of cases from the preceding twenty-four hours, the next day an increase is recorded. Yesterday was an "increase" day, no less than 57 new cases being reported to the health officers. Dr. Hastings said yesterday that the outbreak is not abating and that it will be some time before it is finally defeated. The M. O. H. states that altho quite 200,000 citizens have been vaccinated during the past few weeks, many of the operations have not been successful and advises those persons to be vaccinated over again as if the vaccine does not "take" the person is liable to contract the disease.

The doctor is also collecting all the information possible in connection with the disease itself and vaccination results. He declared yesterday: "I want to know just what there is that can honestly be brought against vaccinattion as well as the benefits it serves."

The following tables show clearly the present state of the outbreak so far as the city is concerned:

New Cases
New cases	57
Sent to hospittal	3
Quarantined at home	54

AVIATION AID CLUB MEETS.

The closing meeting of the Canadian Aviation Aid Club was held in Sherbourne House on Friday, Nov. 28, at 3.30 p.m. Mrs. W. B. Maclean presided, and the many members present voted as to the final disposal of funds and materials in hand. It was decided to use the funds, $2,000, in providing further comforts for disabled soldiers, the money having been raised for that purpose originally.

All the hospital supplies, including the equipment at Longwood, by kindness of Mrs. C. W. Beatty, were distributed among various hospitals, the socks being sent to the Navy League, and flannelette and wool to the social service commission. A committee was appointed to superintend the expenditure consisting of Mrs. Maclean, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Doolittle and Mrs. Stuart Strathy.

CHASING THE PONIES.

I'VE been drawin' fancy pictures of Cuba, an' I'm that inter-ested. All the regular fellas has went and I'll bet they're sportin' "stror-ats" this week and a "buy you another beer expression." So it's me for a perpendicular spin over the little old rails and maybe I won't pick on the winning Joybells.

Some trip? Oh, boy, I could make [illegible] sure o' come-easy dough, spray beer an' then some.

It'll be easy fras for mine when I git chasin' the ponies, I'll say. I ain't dead gone on coastin' against a head-on breeze in a chilisome locomotive, but when I hits the rails I'll leave all the uplift hounds and square faces diggin' cinders outa their orbs for some little time. Accept that from me!

Plunger? You've said something. An' even if they gets bunched at the turn [illegible] what color my jockey [illegible] see me riot with [illegible] with winnin's.

Imagine then, if you can, a vampire keeping anyone out of bankruptcy. However, with new actors and a living and breathing vampire the quarrelsome partners produce a feature "fillum" called "The Guilty Dollar." In the play you see them actually make this picture.
