WHOLESALE FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Trade in all classes of domestic fruits was steady and practically unchanged yesterday, the bulk of the 11-quart boxes of peaches, peaches at 40c to 45c, with choice lots going around 45c and one or two firms reporting the sale of a few extra baskets at $1.25, but this, of course, was only in rare instances.

Tuesday's receipts were said to have been among the heaviest ever received here locally, and while we are right in the flush of the season, receipts are likely to be heavy for some time. While a good many small peaches are coming in, the quality generally is excellent, and arriving in good shape.

In the plums, pears and grapes, plums at 40c to 45c, pears at 35c to 40c for sixes, and 50c to $1.25 for eleventh; grapes at 35c to 40c per bushel. The commission house reports follow for Thursday:
