To the generous donors your Committee desire to record their thanks.

In the month of July last the St. Andrew's Society of Belleville, visited Montreal in a body. The Committee believing that their presence here should be recognized in some way, decided to invite the whole party to a musical entertainment to be held at the Home. The arrangements of the excursionists being such as to prevent the acceptance of our invitation the intended meeting did not take place, though arrangements had been made for the purpose.

It is very gratifying to your Committee, and it must be equally so to you, to observe the interest taken in the Home by our countrymen residing at a distance from this city—as evinced by the noble sum of a thousand dollars having been bequeathed to the Society, by the late John Drummond of Petite Cote, also by the sum of $50 bequeathed by the late Joseph Teskey, of St. Michel, and
