DRYS WILL MEET TO PLAN A CAMPAIGN

Getting Ready to Meet Movers of the Anti-Saloon League.

Washington, Jan. 14.—(United Press)—The part to be played by the Anti-Saloon League in the coming congressional elections and plans for combating wet moves in the present congress will be decided on at the league's 21st annual convention, which convened here today.

Meeting in the First Congregational Church, where President Coolidge worshipped, the league also will agree upon methods for completing the elimination of lawless liquor traffic throughout the country and enter into a general discussion of law enforcement and world prohibition.

An observance of the fourth anniversary of the day when national prohibition became effective, Jan. 16, will climax the convention. The principal speakers at that meeting will be Wm. J. Bryan and Governor Gifford Pinchot, Pennsylvania.

PLAN LIQUIDATING SINN FEIN BONDS

Irish Government Gives Finance Minister Authority to Borrow $6,250,000.

Dublin, Jan. 14.—Arrangements are now complete for liquidating the republican bonds that were floated to support the Sinn Fein movement resulting in the treaty, and the establishment of the Free State. The minister of finance is authorized to borrow the sum up to $6,250,000 for the purpose, and may create and issue interest-bearing securities subject to such conditions as to repayment and redemption as he thinks fit.

Traveling Man Covers Route For 53 Years

Expects to Continue for Five Years More at Least.

New Lexington, Ohio, Jan. 14.—(United Press).—He is 78 and gray of hair, but the spring of youth is in his steps as he continues to travel his route—the same he has traversed for 53 years.

Lewis Hyman, veteran salesman, is laying claim to having covered the same territory for a longer time than any other living salesman. His home is in Columbus, but for 33 years he has been "calling on the trade" between Mount Vernon and New Lexington, Ohio.

During that time he has sold more than $15,000,000 worth of flour and

Opium Den Bans Cursing; Levies a Tax

'Order of Leopards' Forbids Customers to Swear to Save Tenants
From Annoyance.

New York, Jan. 14.—Detectives Moore and Mena on Monday night after they had received complaints from tenants that they were being annoyed by opium fumes that came up the dumb-walker shafts and up the hallways. They sniffed and sniffed up and down the halls and up and down the shaft, but could sniff nothing more alarming or exciting than the usual sniffings. So they settled down to wait, and by and by two men came along and went up the stairs of the house in a mysterious manner.

The detectives followed. They saw the men push the bell deliberately seven times, then call out "Tony!" after which the door opened and the men entered apartment 13 on the fourth floor. Moore and Mena waited a few minutes and then they too pushed the bell seven times and entered when the door opened after they had called for "Tony."

Thus, they said, they found themelves inside a regular opium den, unusual not because opium appeared to have been smoked there and because a lady reclined on a sofa with a revolver at her side, but because the proprietors appeared to have caught the Broadway spirit and had inaugurated a cover charge. This sign was on the wall: "On and after January 1 there will be a charge of $3 per head. Kindly refrain from using profane language, as there is a complaint from tenants."

"By order of the Leopards."

Who the Leopards are the detectives do not know, but they have an idea that they may be the lady on the sofa and her husband, who turned out to be Babe Chu Hum, and her Chinese husband, Chu Hum. Both were arrested and later when arraigned in Tombs court were held in $1,000 bail by Magistrate Barrett. They were charged with possessing opium, and an additional charge of violating the Sullivan law was made against Mrs. Chu Hum.

Matson. Forty-four and six-tenths per cent. of the prisoners in state penal institutions today were sentenced when under 18 years of age.

"No other civilized country has more crime than the United States," Matson said. "The laws in other countries operate to protect the citizen and his property."

feed, and expects to sell another million or so before retiring.

Hyman does not regard his feat as anything unusual. Although he failed only four times during the 53 years in carrying through his weekly schedule, he thinks anyone could do as well if they had the habit.

"My grandfather lived to see his 102nd birthday," he said, "and my father was 94 when he died. I see no reason why I should not keep at my work for a least another five years."
