AMALGAMATION OF ORPHANAGES

The board of directors of the Protestant orphanage met yesterday afternoon and considered further details in connection with the amalgamation of the Memorial Home in British street and the Protestant orphanage and those of the Memorial Home in British street and West St. John buildings as the Memorial Home building will not be taken over. It was finally agreed that a separate building in West St. John should be rented to accommodate the infants. A committee was appointed to locate a suitable building and arrange for its lease. The children will be moved about November 1.

GOVERNMENT PRESSES TAX SUIT AGAINST JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

Washington, Oct. 7.—A motion was made by Solicitor General Beck in the supreme court to advance the hearing of a case which the government has pending against John D. Rockefeller. The government won in the lower courts in its effort to recover an amount it claimed due under the Income Tax law as a tax on the excess of the market value over the par value of certain shares of stock. The government asked that the suit be heard together next week.

REPORT YANKEE HAS BOUGHT GAINSBOROUGH'S BLUE BOY

London, Oct. 7.—Recently it has been asserted and likewise denied that Gainsborough's famous painting "Blue Boy" has been sold by the Duke of Westminster to an unnamed American. The Daily Mail asserts that the picture has been sold and declares that the buyer paid about $250,000 for it.
