THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1920

PRINCE IS NOT GIVING UP RIGHTS TO SUCCESSION

New York, March 13.—A cable received from Prince Christian of Greece, dated at Geneva, was received by the Associated Press yesterday, stating that in view of published reports that the official Gazette of Athens had announced Prince Christian's renouncing all his rights to succession, both Greek and Danish, he was directed by Prince Christian to state that the published reports are absolutely without foundation.

DENUNCIATION OF GERMANY ON TREATY MATTER

Paris, March 12.—(Havas)—Former President Poincaré, in his first political article in the Revue des Deux Mondes, denounces Germany for her attempt to secure a revision of the treaty of Versailles. He asks the Anglo-Saxon friends of France before being moved to pity at Germany's fate, to look at France's devastated regions.

COMMERCE INQUIRY RE THE GROCERS

(Canadian Press.)
Hamilton, March 13.—The investigation by the board of commerce into the alleged wholesale grocers' combine was concluded yesterday afternoon so far as this city is concerned, and was adjourned until March 22, when the board will sit in Toronto.

A feature of yesterday's inquiry was the grilling of A. S. Porter, Hamilton manager of the Canadian General Electric Company, on whose information the investigation into the wholesale grocers' association was ordered. Mr. Porter was put through a severe cross-examination and he said that he had acted hastily in notifying the government of the alleged combine.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"THE MARRIAGE QUESTION"

Monday Night's Play at Queen Square Theatre — East Lynne Wednesday and Thursday.

The Young Adams company, headed by Morley Adams and H. Wilmet Young, will begin their second week's engagement at the Queen Square Theatre on Monday night, with "The Marriage Question," a story of spring and love eternal. In this new and pleasing comedy drama Miss Adams, in the role of "Billie," has a wonderful opportunity to display her charming personality and versatility.

"The Marriage Question" is a clean, moral play, full of bright lines and every girl and woman should see it. H. Wilmet Young as the misunderstood husband has a part especially fitted to his talents and the rest of the excellent company are well cast.

On Wednesday and Thursday nights "East Lynne" will be produced in a most sumptuous manner and as Lady Isabel and the suffering Madam Elton, Miss Adams displays emotion rarely seen on any stage.

Matinees will be given daily except Monday.

The Gregory's in Novelty Land, direct from Loew's Theatre, Montreal, will be an added vaudeville feature commencing Monday night.—Adv.

"BLIND HUSBANDS" UNIQUE ALL NEXT WEEK

What is perhaps the most awe-inspiring scenery ever recorded by the motion picture camera is seen in "Blind Husbands," the Universal photodrama of the Tyrolean Alps, which comes all next week to the Unique Theatre.

The photodrama stars Eric Stroheim, formerly of the Austrian army, in the role that will add to the hatred aroused by his part of the brutish Hun officer in "The Heart of Humanity."

Stroheim depicts the role of Lieutenant Von Steuben of the Austrian army. He goes to a fashionable Alpine resort to prey on all womankind.

Through suave mock courtesy and through subtle suggestion, he breaks down the barrier of her reserve and leads her into a mild flirtation.

Falling to ruin the life of a beautiful American girl, although he never actually touches her, Stroheim's character accomplishes his vile purpose. Von Steuben directs his attention to the humble girls of the Alpine villages, who are his simple souls with his hot passion.

His downfall comes when he launches his puny strength against the might of the eternal mountains.

Supporting Stroheim is the beautiful Francesca Billington and the following cast of widely known Universal players, Sam DeGrasse, H. Gibson-Gowland, Valerie Geronzi and Jack Perrin.

"Blind Husbands" presents a never-to-be-forgotten contrast of the baseness of the mountains with the baseness of human desires. It will be shown at the Unique Theatre all next week.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM IMPERIAL

Owing to the magnitude of next week's picture feature, "Male and Female," the Imperial will not be able to give the usual two exhibitions in the afternoon. The matinees will start, therefore at 2:30 o'clock, with several travel and topical reels, the big feature commencing at 8 o'clock and continuing until after 5. There will be the usual two shows at night, 7 and 9 o'clock.

KILL COLORED MAN ACCUSED OF ATTACK UPON LITTLE GIRL

Montgomery, Ala., March 13.—Willie Smith, colored, a former soldier, was shot and killed by six masked men and Legrand on Thursday night after his arrest on a charge of attacking a six-year-old white girl.

MAY INTERFERE WITH THE ST. JAMES ELECTION

Montreal, March 13.—Legal proceedings today may have the effect of postponing the St. James by-election on April 7, unless one of the parties at issue sees fit to give in.

The question raised is whether the federal parliament can compel the provincial authorities to give them a copy of the electoral lists at a price fixed by the central administration, but which conflicts with that enacted in law by the provincial authorities.

GENERAL MOTORS HAS A FOUR POINT DROP

New York, March 13.—A four point decline in General Motors was the only conspicuous feature at the irregular and active opening of today's stock market. Losses and gains among other industries and the rails were limited to fractions.

TORONTO'S MAYOR FOR THE LEGISLATURE?

Toronto, March 13.—Mayor Church is spoken of as a possible Conservative candidate in Northeast Toronto in the by-election caused by the resignation of Hon. Dr. Cody, former minister of education.

EDITORS OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLICATIONS ANNOUNCED IN BOSTON

Boston, March 13.—The resignation of William H. MacKenzie as editor of the Christian Science Sentinel, of Ottawa, was a good attendance. Among those present was Miss Sarah Appleman, who has been an invalid for some time and who was driven to the function by friends. An excellent programme was enjoyed. Songs were sung by the assembly, a duet was well rendered by Miss Lila Hoyt and Mrs. F. M. Appleman, and Miss Appleman gave a piano solo entitled "Song of the Alps," which was greatly enjoyed. Rev. F. J. M. Appleman was called for an address and he was heard with keen interest. Refreshments were served.

Required for Health and Beauty.

It is surprising that it is necessary to repeat again and again that the health and beauty of the skin require that the blood shall be pure. If the arteries of the skin receive impure blood, pimples and blotches appear, and the individual suffers from humors. Powders and other external applications are sometimes used for these affections, but will never have the desired effect while the causes of impure blood remain.

The distinctions are very clear that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, removing pimples and blotches, and giving health and beauty to the skin. It gives tone to all the organs and builds up the whole system. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla when you ask for it. Don't take anything else.

MARRIED IN NOVA SCOTIA

A wedding of interest took place in Cambridge, N. S., on Wednesday morning, when Charles W. Compton of this city was united in marriage to Miss Lena A. R. Knowlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W.
