

The Biggest Value in Popular Priced Tailored-to-Measure Clothes in the World
A Broad Statement, But Absolutely True

Don't Be Scared Into Paying A High Price For Your Clothes! Have Us Tailor Your Fall Garments To-Your-Measure

THAT croaking cry about High Clothes Prices, now or later, is the wale of the profiteer. In consequence, some men, who need clothes to the point of shabbiness, borrow trouble and pay unreasonable prices.

Trees won't grow so high that they disappear into the sky. Clothes Prices won't soar so high that men can't pay them. We are not losing a wink of sleep worrying that we can't always secure plenty of fabrics, nor always hire plenty of skilled tailors.

We own hundreds of bolts of fine fabrics and trimmings which are in our own Government Bonded Warehouse in Montreal. These fabrics were contracted for by us at the Low-Level Prices which ruled immediately after the Armistice was signed. However, labor is higher, and that increase we must pay, and so must you, but that's all. Not a penny more.

TRADE UNIONISTS OF GERMANY WANT A SPECIAL INVITATION.
Berlin, Sept. 19.—The trade unionists of Germany have decided not to participate in the international labor conference in Washington unless definitely invited. They take the position that their mere admission to the conference, even with the right to vote, would be insufficient.

Reports say that the Austrian labor men will adopt a similar attitude and that Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries will not be represented unless the Germans are invited.

Raffele Valente, a junk dealer at Williamsport, Penn., under arrest charged with stealing twenty-five tons of scrap iron from the storage house of a company dealing in junk, says he took it to get money to support his wife and ten children. He committed his thefts at night, working almost every night in two months to haul away the twenty-five tons.

Many hours before the storm which sank the liner Corydon off the Florida coast last week, with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced they were doomed.

WAVE OF BANDITRY THROUGH NEW YORK STARTLES CITIZENS

Police Suddenly Galvanized Into Activity By Hold-ups

Fought Service Men—Hotel Manager Put Up Hard Fight Against Seven Men in Uniforms Who Tried to Rob Him

New York, Sept. 18.—"Stop this wave of crime and stop it right now," was the order which Police Commissioner Enright passed out behind closed doors today to more than fifty captains and acting captains of New York's plain clothes force. It was intimated that the meeting was called at the instance of Mayor Hylan.

This extraordinary police activity is being exhibited as a result of the rapid succession of hold-ups which has startled the city the last few days. A dozen arrests have been made. Three men are held in connection with the robbery of the Hotel Grand Central, Sherman square; Madison and St. Paul, and the Holland apartment hotel at 16 East 90th street, as well as a Sixth avenue restaurant and a Seventh avenue saloon.

The three gave the names of George Hope, Edward McIntyre and Thomas Burke. They were arrested by Detective Daly, who intimated his belief that the arrests may lead to the disclosure of important facts bearing on the recent murder of "Tanner" Smith and other gangsters killed just before the outbreak of banditry which has scourged the metropolis the last few weeks.

The police are also seeking to connect some of their prisoners with the $8,000 bond robbery of Harry Schmidt of Brooklyn, which occurred Saturday.

The police now are looking for a woman friend of one of the men in jail on the theory that she may have been entrusted with the $8,000 worth of bonds. She has disappeared, they say, from the Amsterdam avenue apartment where she had been living.

Almost two score of hold-ups are attributed to the men under arrest. Two more arrests were made early today at Eighth avenue and Fifteenth street, the neighborhood in which Hope and his pals were captured. They were charged by Eugene Reilly, 40 West 104th street, with having robbed him of $700 on Aug. 20. The prisoners said they were Martin Pike, 30 years old, a machinist, and Paul Higgins, 29 years old, an actor.

Magistrate McQuaid in the west side court held Hope and his companions in $10,000 bail for a hearing tomorrow.

Hold Up Bank at the Bronx. Borough Bank, at White Plains avenue, and escaped with cash estimated at from $7,500 to $8,000.

Three customers were in the bank at the time, but aside from being held under the pistols were not molested. The robbers drove up to the bank in a big seven-passenger touring car, from which the license plates had been removed. The top was up on the car and the chauffeur remained at his seat, leaving the engine running.

Single-handed, with his back against a wall, Pat Kyne, manager of the Park Avenue Hotel, early today battled with seven hold-up men in service uniforms. As a result of his encounter Kyne is badly battered and bruised and under the care of physicians. Police succeeded in capturing two men charged with having participated in the hold-up. Several shots were fired by the policemen in a wild chase through Central Park.

The prisoners, a recently discharged soldier and a former sailor, are held on charges of felonious assault and attempted highway robbery.

Kyne attended a meeting which did not end until after midnight, and decided to walk home. He sat down for a few moments on a bench at Central Park West, near Eighth street. Soon a man in soldier uniform approached and asked him for a quarter.

The hotel man reached in his pocket and handed the soldier a dollar. Kyne asked him if he was still in the service. The soldier said he was.

"You should not be begging while you are still wearing a uniform," said Kyne.

At this the soldier went away, but returned in a few minutes with six other men in uniform. They pointed upon Kyne, backed him against the park wall and began to search his pockets.

Kyne struck out right and left and knocked two of his assailants down. One of the men was trying to tear a diamond pin from his shirt front when Kyne succeeded in drawing a police whistle from his pocket and blew it furiously.

The men leaped the park wall just as three policemen arrived. They gave chase, firing at the forms of the fugitives.

Two of the men halted when bullets began to sing dangerously near their legs and were arrested by the police. After an ambulance surgeon had given first aid to Mr. Kyne he counted his money and reported the robbers had gained nothing in their desperate assault.

Daring in Daylight. Auto bandits, believed by the police to have come from Paterson, carried out a daring daylight hold-up in the public bond exchange in Passaic, N. J., shortly after the opening hour of the institution this morning.

Miss Annette Mann, carrying a satchel of Liberty Bonds, had just entered the building when an unknown man seized her by the throat, while another man made away with the satchel. The first, giving Miss Mann a final choke, cast her aside, dashed through the door to the street, leaped into a waiting auto, to which the man with the bag already had gone, and sped away.

The police refused to give out any information as to the loss beyond saying that they believed the bandits came from Paterson, one of them probably on the same car with Miss Mann. The loot, it was said, amounted to several hundred dollars. Miss Mann was not seriously injured.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:
Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmit (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
Parmit is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.
Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

A CHURCH STORY.
Edward M. Flesch of the United States Food Commission was talking in St. Louis about snobbishness. "Snobbishness penetrates everywhere," he said. "It even penetrates our churches. I know an old lady who got religion last month and decided to join the richest and handsomest church in town, the church with the finest music and the best preaching. Then he called on the pastor and stated his design. But the pastor hemmed and hawed. He felt that his fashionable flock wouldn't welcome such an addition as the old lady. He didn't want to hurt the old fellow's feelings, however, and finally he said: 'Go home, Uncle Rooster. Go home and pray over it. This is an important matter and should be made a subject of prayer.' Uncle Rooster went home, and in a few days he was back again. 'Well,' said the divine. 'Well, what's the verdict now?' 'Ah, prayed and prayed,' said Uncle Rooster, 'and a good Lawd He say to me: 'Rooster, mah son. Ah wouldn't bother mah haid about that mattin no mo'. Ah've been a-tryin' to git into dat ch'urch mahself fo' de last twenty-nine yeas an' Ah ain't had no luck nuther.'"

SASKATCHEWAN FARMERS
VERY MUCH IN EARNEST.
Regina, Sask., Sept. 19.—The organized farmers of Saskatchewan will set aside a date early in October to be known as "Independence Day" and a province-wide canvass will then be made to promote interest in the organization's political action. This scheme was adopted at the grain growers' political convention yesterday.
