MISS EVA MYLOTT DELIGHTS AUDIENCE IN OPERA HOUSE

Miss Hilda Aiken Also Pleases And A. C. Smith, a St. John Boy, Scores Success

Many lovers of the beautiful in music, and friends of the members of the R. E. Y. C. attended the concert given last evening in the Opera House by Miss Eva Mylott, the Australian contralto, who was accompanied by Miss Hilda Aiken. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed and well merited a larger audience. In addition to the visiting artists Alphonso C. Smith, of Carleton, also appeared on the programme, and was heard in several pleasing tenor solos. D. A. Fox was his accompanist. The programme was nicely varied and gave pleasure to all present.

Miss Mylott's varied repertoire, which ranged from light and graceful Irish love-songs, through the typical French music of somewhat deeper passion in Saint-Saens' "Mon Coeur S'ouvre a Ta Voix," to Beethoven's sepulchral "In Questa Tomba" showed her capable of handling with consummate art the works of composers of very different genius. The full beauty of her voice was perhaps heard to best advantage in the Anglaise, "Old Brittany" the music of peace which seems to soar heavenward and inevitably recalled the peaceful scene depicted in Millet's famous picture.

The rich fullness of the singer's powerful voice was brought out in the first two of the songs mentioned above, while its lightness and delicacy were amply manifested in Somerville's dainty "Ballad of Kisses," and Spross' "Will o' the Wisp," the last words of which sink almost to a whisper, audible only through Miss Mylott's perfect diction.

Miss Hilda Aiken's accompaniment was no unimportant factor in the success of the concert, while her fine technique was shown in the performance of Grieg's "Wedding Day." Her singing of the Maori song, "Valuta Poi," proved her to be possessed of a well trained soprano voice of fine quality, and the audience regretted that her name appeared only once on the programme for a song, if the hearty applause evoked may be taken as a criterion.

Local talent was well represented by Alphonso C. Smith, whose tenor of fine quality was the only male voice heard in the concert. He sang "At Dawning" by Cadman, "When I think of Violets," by Nevin Doyle, "Who Knows?" by E. R. Ball, and "Under the Rose" by Ames Fisher. Mr. Smith is a pupil of Miss Gertrude Healy, of this city, and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Colby Smith.

THE KIRMESS REPEATS FIRST NIGHT SUCCESS

The success scored by the Kirmess on the opening night was repeated last evening when the audience was even larger than on the first occasion. The big spectacle was given with the same completeness and confidence gained by its repetition made the performance run more smoothly than ever. The audience showed their appreciation of the efforts of performers and promoters alike by the most generous applause and by their demands for encores. In spite of the heavy adverse weather there were still many excellent seats left for this evening and Monday.

In acknowledging the assistance given by many citizens, Mrs. Wetmore mentioned Mr. Wood of the Thompson-Wood Stock Company at the Opera House who loaned their trap drummer to assist the volunteer orchestra which is led by Miss Moreau of Portland. Mrs. J. Foster, Mrs. Wilford Campbell and Mrs. Crockett also assisted the committee greatly by helping to care for the smaller children who take part.

CONFESSES HIMSELF SLAYER OF HIS WIFE

Chicago, Oct. 18.—William T. Ellis, confessed yesterday afternoon to the murder of his wife here late on Wednesday night. He said his wife was "the most virtuous woman in the world, and that he must have been crazy over his health and business troubles. Ellis said he fired four shots into her body and then he shot himself and cut his own throat and wrists. He then lay down by her side, hugging her lifeless form and kissing her lips until morning, when his warmth left her body and her form became rigid.

PLAYGROUNDS

(Amherst News)

On several occasions the News has urged that Amherst should at once arrange to establish public play grounds for the children and young men. In an industrial center like Amherst where many of our young men are confined during the day in work shops, a field for athletic purposes is absolutely essential. We will all come to the opinion before many years and as land is steadily increasing in value the News feels it a mistake to defer the purchase of a property for this purpose. In Montreal they are asking for a vote of one million dollars for the purchase of play grounds, and discussing the subject of the Montreal Herald has the following:

"The story of an experiment which has been a success was told by two or three speakers at last night's meeting in the Parks and Playgrounds Association at the Technical School. The meeting was unfortunately not very largely attended, but what was lacking in numbers was more than made up for in enthusiasm and determination. If anything be needed to prove the pitiful eagerness of the child of poor parents to find a little place in the sun and to enjoy a little of the pleasure of healthy exercise, J. C. Walsh's figures showing the enormous increase in attendance from week to week as the good news of the playgrounds spread, furnished that proof. The season just passed was unfortunately only in so far as it was late in commencing, yet with this handicap over thirty-five thousand of those children who need it most were present from day to day, getting the fullest advantage of the apparatus and the training given by experienced instructors. Mr. Walsh believes that the end of next season will see a total attendance of seventy-five thousand, and there is every ground for believing his estimate to be below the mark."

"The Association asks one million dollars from the city to carry on the work. A million dollars is a huge sum and Montreal needs money badly, but in our opinion no project now before the city means a better investment. The expenditure would be spread over three years, and in this way the burden of it upon the ratepayers would be considerably lightened."

"Surely we owe it to our poor children. They have been quick to show their appreciation of what we have done so far, although that has been very little. The grant of ten thousand dollars all told. If the association's work is to be carried on effectively it must have money, and nowhere can money be spent to better advantage."
