LOCAL NEWS

SCOW SUNK. A coal laden scow filled and sank at the end of the North Wharf this morning.

THE CASE GOES ON. The case of Jack vs. Kearney is being continued in Supreme Court Chambers before Justice McLeod today. M. G. Teed is for the plaintiff; Hon. W. P. Jones for the defendant.

SAILORS SCARCE. Considerable difficulty is being experienced by shipping people in getting sailors and some vessels are being delayed on this account. It is some time since men have been so scarce at this port.

DISCHARGING COAL. A wireless message to J. Willard Smith this morning announced that the schooner Clayola had arrived at Machine Seal, in oak with coal and started discharging. The schooner loaded at Joggins. Her cargo is for the Lighthouse.

A BREAK-DOWN. The wheel of a wagon belonging to the Dominion Express Company was smashed in Main street about 10:30 o'clock this morning. The load, including a moose head and several dressed pigs, was transferred to another wagon.

COUNTY CANDIDATE. When it next comes to choosing a candidate in the Conservative interests in St. John county for the local legislature, the man in the street says that Florence McCarthy will be found one of the most prominent. It was said yesterday that strong pressure was being brought on him to run.

THE STEAMERS. Captain Baetle line S. S. "Albion," Captain Lockhart, from Boston for Europe, arrived at Colabine on Oct. 10. Allan line S. S. "Corsican" was 180 miles east of Belleisle at 11 a. m. on Tuesday and is due to arrive at Quebec at midnight on Thursday, and at Montreal on Friday night.

DREDGE NEW BRUNSWICK. Further effort was made this morning to land men at Missip to continue the work of dismantling the wrecked dredge New Brunswick but it was abandoned. The main engine and nearly all of the machinery have been taken off and all the cables salvaged. All that remains is some shafting.

CLAN MACKENZIE. A meeting of Clan Mackenzie was held last night to make arrangements for the celebration of the anniversary of the landing of the clan at Missip. A concert followed by a supper and a dance in the Seaman's Institute. Several committees were appointed to make further arrangements. Another meeting will be held next week.

POLICE REPORT. Andrew White has been reported for using profane and abusive language to Kenneth Outhouse. Joseph Cavanagh has been reported by the police for obstructing the sidewalk at the corner of Wentworth and Queen streets yesterday. Ernest Earle, a newboy, has been reported for selling papers at the entrance of the Union Depot and thereby annoying passengers.

HERRING AT GRAND BAY. The first catch of herring that has been made in Grand Bay for about six years was brought to the wharf this morning. Richard Craft of the west side was successful in netting 1,200 of the largest fish brought here for some time. While the water is fairly salt at Grand Bay it is something new for these salt water fish to be found there. It is thought that dog fish had driven them there.

GOES TO WORK WITH DREDGES. G. S. Mayer's tug Dirigo, which has been tied up on the West Side of the harbor, went into commission again this morning attending the dominion government dredge Fielding. Her re-appearance with the harbor fleet was signalled by a collision with the government tug Hercules in which the latter was damaged slightly. Both tug boats were engaged in moving the anchors of the dredge when in some manner the Dirigo struck the Hercules amidships damaging her leaders somewhat.

MISS MARGARET KELLY IS DEAD IN MONCTON

Was With Marr Millinery Co. Here—The Press Association Business (Special to Times)

Moncton, N.B., Oct. 11—Miss Margaret A. Kelly died today after an illness of about three months. She had been for several years connected with the Marr Millinery Company's business in Moncton and later in St. John. Her death is learned with regret by many friends. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. James Gillespie, Mrs. P. MacKasey and Miss Susan Kelly; also two brothers, James and Robert, of the I. C. R. all of Moncton. Last evening the choir of the First Baptist church surprised Mrs. and Mrs. G. O. Spencer by visiting their home and presenting to them two beautiful easy chairs. The presentation was made by Hiram Bull, organist and choirmaster.

KINGS COURT ADJOURNS

Hampton, N. B., Oct. 11—When the Circuit court adjourned yesterday afternoon a jury had been chosen to try the case of Parlee vs. Parlee this morning. But during the evening Judge Landry received word that settlement had been reached and the cause was withdrawn. This morning in the absence of the judge, A. E. Pearson, clerk, opened the court in due form, discharged the jury, and adjourned the court sine die.

Miss Lena Ferris, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ferris, will leave this evening for Hartford, Conn.

BOY LOSES AN EYE BY SHOOTING

Six Year Old Queens County Lad Brought to Hospital Here in Serious Condition, But Recovery Hoped For

As the result of a shocking shooting accident, little Edward Farrell, the six-year-old son of J. W. Farrell of Newcastle Bridge, Queens county is in the General Public Hospital here suffering from a wound which has caused the loss of his right eye and which may terminate fatally. The little chap was playing in front of his home on Monday afternoon when Otty Lockhart, aged fourteen, a son of Magistrate Edwin L. Lockhart, came along with a shot gun. Lockhart, it is alleged, had the weapon pointed towards the child and with the warning "I'm going to shoot you" pulled the trigger. The discharge struck the boy in the head wounding him terribly. The local doctor dressed the injuries and on Tuesday the boy was brought to the hospital by his father.

An examination showed that the eye is destroyed but hopes are entertained for his recovery.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED OF $40 AT McADAM

Police Court Prisoner's Story—Evidence in Pond Street Knifing Case

One lone prisoner, John Brennan, faced Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning on the charge of drunkenness. He told the court that he had arrived in the city yesterday morning from the fact that he had been robbed of $40 at McAdam Junction on Tuesday by two strangers. He was fined $4 or ten days in jail. The case against Charles McElmon, charged with stabbing Charles Thompson with a knife and also for attempting to stab Mrs. William Campbell in a house in Pond street was resumed this morning. Near the evidence of four witnesses was taken the case was adjourned until Friday morning at 10 o'clock when Dr. C. M. Pratt will be called to give evidence as to the wounds inflicted. Charles Thompson, one of the complainants, told of McElmon going to his house on Monday afternoon and of his getting into a row with Mrs. Campbell. The witness had tried to quell the disturbance and McElmon stabbed him twice. Mrs. Campbell and her son told of McElmon breaking in the door of their house, calling them vile names and also attempting to stab them. Mrs. Campbell said she had not struck McElmon on the head with a chair, she would have been stabbed in the face. Mrs. Thompson, wife of the first witness, was called, but knew practically nothing about the affair. Mrs. Thompson was asked if he had any questions to ask the witnesses, the prisoner replied that he knew nothing whatever about the occurrence. The witnesses all entered into a recognition to appear at the next sitting of the higher court, and the prisoner was remanded to jail. George Whittaker, reported for working in the city without a license, was given till Friday morning to take out one.

ALEX. BURR DEAD

One of New Brunswick's Best Known Business Men Passed Away Today

The death of Alexander Burr took place at 6 o'clock this morning at his residence, 38 Pitt street, after an illness of ten weeks. Mr. Burr, who was fifty-two years old, leaves his wife, formerly Miss Catherine Wilkinson, of Chatham, and two sons, F. G. Burr, manager of the Bank of New Brunswick in Hantsport, N. S., and Master Moffatt Burr, at home. He was also survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. Cassie, of Douglastown, Northumberland County, and three brothers, Andrew in North Carolina, Richard in Michigan, and William, who was last heard from in Seattle.

Mr. Burr was a native of Chatham, N. B., and had lived in St. John for six years. He travelled for The Laurentian White Star Company of Quebec, and was one of the best known and most popular commercial men in the maritime provinces. His death will be sincerely regretted by a wide circle of friends. Mr. Burr was a member of the Commercial Travellers' Association and the Commercial Travellers' Association. The body will be taken to Chatham on Thursday for interment and the funeral will be held on Friday.

BARLETON CHURCH LOSES MEMBER WHO WAS AT THE OPENING SERVICE

Mrs. John Rowley Passed Away Today at the Age of Eighty-Two

The West Side lost one of its oldest residents today when the death of Mrs. Sarah Rowley occurred at the home of her son, 62 Guildford street. She had attained the advanced age of eighty-two and had lived in the West End for nearly the whole of her life. Mrs. Rowley was probably the oldest member of the Barleton Presbyterian church and was present at the opening service seventy-five years ago. She had been ill for several weeks and passed peacefully away this morning. She was twice married. Her first husband was Robert Cameron. She leaves three sons and one daughter. The sons are Jasper R. Cameron of the West End, William W. Cameron of Boston and Albert of Victoria, B. C. The daughter is Mrs. William Warwick of Boston. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of her son, 62 Guildford street, West Side. Service will be at 2:30 o'clock.
